FIRST BUSINESS SESSION: Friday afternoon - Administration

The 203rd Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled in the Church of the Saviour, 38th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on Friday, October 24, 1986.

The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Bishop of Pennsylvania and President of the Convention, opened the meeting with prayer at 3:00 p.m. The Bishop appointed John L. Harrison, Jr., Esq., Chancellor to replace William White who has retired.

The Rev. Vernon A. Austin, Jr., nominated Nancy S. Ritter for the office of Secretary of Convention (DC 3.2.1). This was confirmed. Mrs. Ritter's appointment of Constance C. Medaugh as Assistant Secretary was also confirmed. Father Austin moved the adoption of the agenda with two corrections.

The Bishop introduced Mrs. M. Joanne Moore, Chair of the Committee for Convention Planning, who thanked the Church of the Saviour, the sextons, and others for their help with the arrangements.

The Rev. Vernon A. Austin, Jr., Chairman of the Committee on Dispatch of Business, presented the proposed agenda (SRO #2). This was approved. The agenda is attached to these minutes as Appendix #1.

The Secretary reported that the report from the Committee ON COST OF GENERAL CONVENTION was the only unfinished business from the 202nd Convention. The Rev. James A. Trimble reported.

The Secretary called Convention's attention to the Canon of Courtesy (DC 2.9). This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #2.

The following resolution was then moved and adopted:

R-23: RESOLUTION OF COURTESY: THE REV. ROBERT GREER, CALVARY/ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA

WHEREAS, The Rev. Robert Greer, an ordained Presbyterian minister, has been duly appointed Minister-in-Charge of the Episcopal congregation (St. Paul's) of the combined Episcopal Presbyterian congregation of Calvary-St. Paul's, Philadelphia, since April 5, 1971; and

WHEREAS, The Rev. Robert Greer has been regularly seated in each Convention since his appointment;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania welcomes the Rev. Mr. Greer and extends to him the privilege of a seat and a voice in this Convention.

The Secretary called the Convention's attention to the following items:

SR #26: Concerning Religious Professed In Orders. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #3.

SO IV.6: Youth Representation. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #4.

The following resolution was adopted as amended to comply with the Canons.

R-18: CANON OF COURTESY: THE MEMORIAL CHAPEL OF THE HOLY COMMUNION.

BE IT RESOLVED that the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion be accorded by this Resolution of Courtesy, seat and voice in this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania as are all other mission and parish congregations of the Diocese, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion be seated in this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania together with its fellow members of the Southwark Deanery.

The Secretary then called Convention's attention to the following:

DC 2.9: Clergy Not Eligible to Vote. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #5.

DCon.Art. IV.5: Congregations which have not Qualified for Representation. The Secretary reported that there were two: Christ Church, Upper Merion, and St. Barnabas, Kensington.

SR #25: Circulation of Literature at Convention. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #6.

The Very Rev. Louis H. Temme, Chair of the Committee on Clergy to Seats, reported that there were no claims to seats by clergy (DC 2.2, 2.3, SR #1, SO.II.5(5a)).

Harry Richards, Chair of the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats, reported that there were no claims to seats by the laity (DC 2.4, 5.6, 2.8, SR #2, DCon IV.2.3).

David C. Auten, Esq., Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, reported on REA 1 which was adopted:

I. That in the first paragraph of Article I, Section 4, the words "confirmed adult" shall be inserted before the word "communicants," to read as follows:

Sec. 4 The Church in each Diocese which has been admitted to union with the General Convention shall be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than four Presbyters or Deacons, canonically resident in the Diocese, and not more than four Lay Persons, confirmed adult communicants of this Church in good standing in the Diocese, but not necessarily domiciled in the Diocese;...

II. That in the first sentence of Article X the following words shall be struck: "and Administration of the Sacraments and Other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, and the Form and Manner of Making, Ordaining and Consecrating Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, the Form of Consecration of a Church or Chapel, the Office of Institution of Ministers, and Articles of Religion." The sentence will then read:

The Book of Common Prayer as now established or hereafter amended by the authority of this Church, shall be used in all the Dioceses of this Church.

III. That in the first sentence of Article II, Section 7, the words "Veterans' Administration Medical Centers and Federal Correctional Institutions" be inserted after the words "United States," so that the sentence shall read as follows:

It shall be lawful for the House of Bishops to elect a Suffragan Bishop who, under the direction of the Presiding Bishop, shall be in charge of the work of those chaplains in the Armed Forces of the United States, Veterans' Administration Medical Centers, and Federal Correctional Institutions who are ordained Ministers of this Church.

IV. That Article IV be amended by substituting the word "elected" for the word "appointed" in the first sentence, and by adding the following clause after the word "thereof" in the same sentence: "except that provision for filling vacancies between meetings of Convention may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Dioceses." The sentence will then read:

In every Diocese a Standing Committee shall be elected by the Convention thereof, except that provision for filling vacancies between the meetings of Convention may be prescribed by the Canons, of the respective Dioceses.

Mr. Auten then moved the following revisions to Section 13.1 of the Canons, Art. IV, Sec 1, and Art. IV of the Constitution, and Canon Sections 6.1 and 6.2, which were adopted without change:

1. Section 13.3 Trustee for Gifts

The Committee has approved the revision of Section 13.3 of the Canons, now entitled "Providing for a Trustee in Certain Cases," recommended by the Standing Committee. The revision, the text of which is contained in the Convention packet, would change the title of Section 13.3 to "Regarding Certain Gifts."

2. Constitution, Article IV, Section 1, Clergy Votes at Convention

Upon the recommendation of various clergy and lay persons, the Committee recommends the deletion of the requirement that clergy be canonically resident within the diocese for six months before the meeting of a Convention in order to have a seat and vote at that Convention. The Committee recommends adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED that the phrase"...if he has been canonically resident within this diocese for the space of six calendar months next before the meeting of the Convention, and has for the same period been employed in performing the duties of his station..." shall be revised to read as follows:

"...if he or she is canonically resident in this diocese at the actual time of the meeting of the Convention and is then employed in performing the duties of his or her station..."

Explanation: This amendment would permit the enfranchisement of clergy who have been in this diocese less than six months and who now can vote neither in their old or their new diocese during that period. It would also clarify that clergy then resident in the diocese could vote at any Convention adjourned and reconvened at a later date.

If adopted at this Convention, this resolution will be presented to the 204th Convention for final approval in accordance with Article X of the Constitution.

3. Article IX. Voting requirements at Convention

The Committee recommends elimination of the anomaly in the provision for majority voting in the event that less then two-thirds of either Order entitled to vote is present at a Convention. The Committee recommends adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED that the first proviso in Article IX, of the Constitution which now reads: "Provided, that if less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to seats and votes be present then two-thirds of the votes of that Order shall be necessary to determine the choice of such Order" be revised to read as follows:

"Provided, that if less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to seats and votes be present, then the votes of that order equal to one-third of the number of that Order entitled to seats and votes shall be necessary to determine the choice of such Order."

Explanation: The current article provided for a majority vote if two-thirds or more of those eligible to vote are present, but a two-thirds vote of those present if less than two-thirds of those eligible to vote are present. That means that if 100 are eligible and 67 are present, a majority vote (i.e., 34 votes) is needed to adopt a measure. However, if 66 are present, then two-thirds (i.e., 44 votes) are needed. That is a patently absurd result. The amendment would provide a minimum vote of one-third of those eligible. If 100 are eligible, then 34 would remain the minimum regardless of how many are present.

4. Canon Sections 6.1 and 6.2, Organization of Diocesan Council

The Committee has approved the recommendation of the Ad Hoc Committee on Council-Related Canon Revision that Sections 6.1.1.1 and 6.2.4.2, be deleted and that Sections 6.1.1.2, 6.1.1.3 and 6.1.1.5 be amended as shown on the attached Exhibit I. These changes are relatively minor and will eliminate transitional provions which were required by certain 1972 amendments and which are no longer necessary.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons finds no conflict between the proposed amendments and any of the other provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania or the U.S. Episcopal Church.

Stewart Dalzell, Esq., Chairman of Resolutions, reported that two late resolutions, R-33: In Memory of John Charles Rettew, and R-34: Repeal of the Relocation Law Concerning Hopiland Dine (Navaho) Peoples, be deferred on the agenda to 18.1.1.

D.C. 1.4 SO II.5c: John Butterworth, Esq., for the Committee on Incorporation. No report

Nancy S. Ritter, Chair, Committee on Elections (SO.V) announced that Mary Louise Bulmer had withdrawn her name as Deputy to General Convention. Mrs. Ritter called on the Rev. Harry E. Krauss, Chair of the Nominating Committee, who moved the slate of nominees. The Secretary then asked for nominations from the floor (SO.V.6). Philip Howse was nominated to the Standing Committee after which nominations were closed.

Jefferson Moak, Judge of Elections, explained the voting procedure, and the first ballot was cast for:

Standing Committee: One clergyperson and one layperson

Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions: One clergyperson and one layperson.

Deputy to General Convention: Four clergypersons and four laypersons

The Secretary was directed to cast an unanimous vote for the confirmation of the following in the Cathedral Chapter, with term ending 1990:

The Rev. Thomas W.S. Logan, Sr.	The Rev. Phyllis G. Taylor
Howard Kellogg, Esq.	Mrs. H. Hansell Ritter

The following reports were admitted by title and are attached to these minutes by the following Appendices:

RE-8: Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, William J. Burke, Vice-Chair--Appendix #7.

RE-17: The Church Foundation, Beatty J. Smith, Executive Vice-President--Appendix #8.

The Treasurer's Report, given by Andrew McA. Hunter, Treasurer, was accepted, and is attached to these minutes as Appendix #9.

Philip McMaster, Chairman of the Program Budget Committee, presented R-20: Diocesan Program Budget for 1987. It was moved to accept the budget with the change recommended by Diocesan Council. A motion to alter the agenda by moving R-2 ahead of R-20 was defeated, as was a motion to divide the question. John Butterworth, Esq., moved an amendment to add Canon 7.8.4 to those suspended under Resolution B. R-20 was then adopted with these changes. The Proposed 1987 Diocesan Program Budget is attached to these minutes as Appendix 36.

R 20-A:

BE IT RESOLVED, THAT the 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopts the Proposed Diocesan Program Budget for 1987, as presented by the Diocesan Program Budget Committee and adopted for presentation by Diocesan Council.

R 20-B:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania continues the practice of suspending Diocesan Canons 7.2, 7.3, 7.4, which are concerned with assessments for the Support of Episcopate and for Convention and Diocesan expense.

NOTE: "Note 1, p. 102, Journal, 192nd Annual Convention: "The 187th Diocesan Convention on October 3, 1970 passed the following resolution which has been re-affirmed at each successive Diocesan Convention:

"RESOLVED, that Diocesan Convention, at its meeting held October 2 and 3, 1970, accepts and approves the elimination for budgetary purposes of the Assessment on each parish and mission and the combining of the Assessment and Missionary Budget into a single budget. (This support of the Office of the Bishop is and must be a first priority and obligation under this method of developing the budget.)"

R 20-C:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania authorizes that the following procedures be employed by Diocesan Council for reviewing the income and expenditures called for in the 1987 Diocesan Program Budget:

(1) The receipt of the final pledge from each congregation by December 31, 1986; but no later than January 31, 1987.

(2) The amendment of the 1987 Diocesan Program Budget by Diocesan Council at any time during 1987 if the total income differs significantly from the total anticipated in the 1987 Diocesan Program Budget, as adopted by Diocesan Convention.

NOTE: The above procedures have been adopted annually by Diocesan Convention since the 187th Diocesan Convention, October 1970.

William J. Burke, Vice Chairman of the Committee on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved Resolutions 14 through 17 which were adopted as presented. Mr. Burke then announced his retirement as Vice Chairman.

R-14: Salaries, Full-time Employment

RESOLVED: That the policy of relating cash salary ranges (exclusive of housing and utility allowances) to a level approximately 30% below the average of cash salary practices for non-profit organizations to be continued, with the range midpoint continuing to be the appropriate salary for a thoroughly competent incumbent of significant tenure, and that range midpoints to become effective January 1, 1987 shall be: (See Note A)

Responsibility Level of Position	Key Definition	Current 1986 Midpoint	Cash Salary Midpoint Effec. 1-1-87
A	Intern	$18,673	$19,420
B	Curate	20,530	21,351
C	Rector/Vicar Small Parish	24,024	24,985
D	" " Medium Parish	26,645	27,711
E	" " Medium-Large Parish	31,231	32,480
F	" " Large Parish	34,835	36,228
G	" " Very Large Parish	38,984	40,543

(cont.)

RESOLVED FURTHER: That ranges shall continue to extend 22.5% above and below the midpoint, so that for each range the Minimum shall be 77.5% of the midpoint, and the Maximum shall be 122.5% of the midpoint. (See Note A)

RESOLVED FURTHER: That vestries be encouraged to pay at least half of the Social Security tax for clergy. (See Note B)

RESOLVED FURTHER: That for full-time diocesan interns starting in the middle of the calendar year, the minimum cash salary for newly ordained deacons shall be at least 81% of the midpoint for Level A; and the minimum cash salary for priested interns in the second year of their internship shall be at least 77.5% of the midpoint for Level B. (See Note C)

Explanation

(Note A) These two paragraphs reinforce and extend past policies adopted by Convention in successive years since 1975. The 1987 increase is four percent.

(Note B) Clergy are considered self-employed for Social Security purposes. Because of this, and because housing and utilities are included in credited compensation, Social Security tax obligations of clergy at 12.3% for 1987 represent a much larger proportion of cash salary than the Social Security tax obligations of other employees.

(Note C) This regularizes the practice which has been followed for several years to maintain parity for interns on a 12-month salary adjustment cycle, with due recognition for their advancement from diaconate to priesthood.

R-15: Compensating Part-time Employment

RESOLVED: That 1987 guidelines for compensating clergy for supply work, interim assignments and part-time work shall be established, as follows:

	Sunday Supply One Service	Sunday Supply One Full Day	Interim or Part-time Per Day
Minimum	$57	$74	$96
Usual Range	$64 to $107	$81 to $137	$105 to $179
Maximum	$120	$154	$201

RESOLVED FURTHER: That Interim or Part-time arrangements shall include, in addition to cash salaries, pro-rata payments (paid directly to the Carrier and/or Fund) for Church Pension Fund assessments and premiums for medical/hospitalization insurance, unless they are waived or covered in some other way.

Explanation

This resolution continues guidelines applied by the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions for several years and formally adopted at the 200th Convention. The dollar amounts for 1987 are pro-rated from the full-time structure submitted in a separate resolution, reflecting a four percent increase over 1986, rounded to the nearest dollar. The pro-rating is based on 263 working days per year with no pay for days not worked.

A parish is obligated to pay Church Pension Fund assessments for any of the clergy who are employed for three months or more and earn $50 or more per month, unless already on pension.

R-16: Allowances and Expenses

RESOLVED: That previous Convention resolutions on allowances and reimbursements for "business related" expenses be reaffirmed, as follows:

Unless church-furnished housing and utilities are provided, an adequate allowance shall be provided to cover the cost of appropriate housing, including utilities, which in no case should be less than 30% of cash salary.

All "business" expenses, e.g., those expenses which would routinely be reimbursed in secular employment, shall be reimbursed (and provided for in adequate allowances in parish budgets).

Where personal autos are used, the automobile allowance should be either:

(1) the Internal Revenue Service published standard (which currently is a mileage allowance relating to miles of use), plus reimbursement of tolls and parking fees, or

(2) a budgeted monthly allowance designed to cover the actual cost of automobile operations.

Explanation

There seems to be a continuing need to emphasize the importance of an appropriate, competitive cash salary plus appropriate, adequate allowances and/or reimbursement of "reasonable and necessary" expenses incurred in conduct of the parish and clergy affairs.

R-17: Assessment

RESOLVED: That the Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment be maintained at the 1986 level of $40,000 for 1987.

Explanation

This assessment was increased in 1983 from $20,000 to $50,000 to meet the increasing drain on existing funds. In 1983 the needs stabilized at a somewhat lower level than expected. The lower figure was set for 1984 and has been adequate for each year since then.

Unfinished Business from the 202nd Convention: On the Cost of General Convention was spoken to by the Rev. James A. Trimble.

R-2: Medical Benefits for Retired Clergy was withdrawn by its presenter, the Rev. Richard T. Hawkins

5:00 p.m. Special Order #1

The Rev. Herbert E. Rowe moved the following resolution which was adopted with standing approval:

R-26: Recognition of the Ministry of William White, Esquire

RESOLVED, this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania expresses its gratitude for William White's twenty-nine year ministry as Chancellor of the Diocese. During almost three decades, he has been a faithful and wise counselor to his canonical clients, our Bishops and Standing Committee, as well as to all in the Diocese who sought his good advice. We are further grateful that after this ending to one of Mr White's ministries, he remained energetic as ever in serving his Lord in our Diocese.

The Rev. Herbert E. Rowe then presented R-27 which was also adopted with standing approval:

R-27: In Recognition of the Ministry of Philip C. Howse

RESOLVED, this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania expresses its gratitude for the ministry of Philip C. Howse, who has recently stepped aside as Treasurer of the Diocese after serving in that office for 10 years. During this period, in addition to faithfully performing the duties incumbent on his office, he has worked actively on stewardship education and has provided extensive assistance far beyond what would normally be expected to those responsible for the day to day financial and administrative affairs of the Diocese. Throughout his 10 years of service as Treasurer, he has given steadfast support to the Bishop in helping him to carry out the mission of the Diocese. We are grateful for the ministry of Philip C. Howse.

Jeanne Barnell Tanfield and the Rev. John B. Pumphrey presented R-33, which was adopted with prayer.

R-33: In Memory of John Charles Rettew

WHEREAS: John Charles Rettew faithfully served this Diocese as Controller from 1973 to 1982; played an instrumental role in the development of Cathedral Village; greatly contributed to our understanding of stewardship; and while serving in this role, and later as Associate Administrator for Human Resources at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, was an advocate of and model for the ministry of the laity, and

WHEREAS: he maintained active membership in Trinity Episcopal Church, Moorestown, New Jersey, for many years, and more recently in St. John's Church, Bala Cynwyd, and

WHEREAS: all who met and worked with John were inspired by his loyalty, compassion, integrity, humility, humor and Faith-Full-ness,

BE IT RESOLVED: this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania meeting in Philadelphia on the 25th day of October, 1986, shall give thanks to God in prayer for the life and work of John Charles Rettew.

5:15 p.m. Convention was recessed for 15 minutes

5:30 p.m. Bishop Ogilby presided at the celebration of the Holy Eucharist and gave the Bishop's Address which is attached to these minutes as Appendix #10.

SECOND BUSINESS SESSION: Saturday morning

7:45 a.m. The Holy Eucharist was celebrated in the Chapel, Church of the Saviour. The Rt. Rev. Allen L. Bartlett, Jr., presided.

8:45 a.m. A Hymn Sing was led by Mrs. Joan Gurniak, Chair of the Diocesan Music Committee.

9:00 a.m. Bishop Ogilby opened the meeting with prayer.

Mr Jefferson Moak reported on the results of the first ballot. Elected were:

Deputy to General Convention:	Janice Duncan and John Harrison, Esq., Laity
Standing Committee:	no choice
Clergy Salaries and Pensions:	The Rev. A. Hugh Dickinson, Clergy Marjorie Parsons, Laity

Mr. Moak then gave instructions on the second ballot.

Mr. George Soule, Clergy Deployment Officer, introduced clergy new to the Diocese since Convention last. This list is attached to these minutes as Appendix #12.

Bishop Ogilby thanked his Staff for their support and especially Mrs. John W. Forrester, who is retiring after many years of service.

The report of the Standing Committee, RE-20, was given by title, and is attached as Appendix #13.

The Rt. Rev. Allen L. Bartlett, Jr. spoke to RE-26: Report of the Diocesan Mission Strategy Commission. The text of Bishop Bartlett's remarks is attached to these minutes as Appendix #11; RE-26, as Appendix #14.

The following reports were admitted by title and are attached to these minutes:

The Rev. James H. Littrell moved R-10, which was adopted with an amendment by Christopher Hart.

R-10: Resolution on Discrimination and the Aids Crisis

RESOLVED: This 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

(a) with sadness at the greatly increased public and private discrimination against homosexual persons which has arisen in connection with the AIDS crisis, (b) with knowledge that the ability to minister to and support persons with AIDS is gravely impaired by such discrimination, and (c) with hope that this Church may be a growing force for justice, full acceptance and love for all persons, regardless of their sexual orientation, and especially those affected by the AIDS crisis, reaffirms and recommits this Diocese to a ministry based on the following positions previously taken by General Convention of our Church and by own own 198th Convention in 1981, as follows:

1. That "the Episcopal Church recognize with love and compassion the tragic human suffering and loss of lise involved in the AIDS epidemic", (1985 General Convention)

3. "That homosexual persons are children of God who have a full and equal claim with all other persons upon the love, acceptance, and pastoral concern and care of the Church"; (1976 General Convention)

4. "That homosexual persons are entitled to equal protection of the laws with all other citizens"; (1976 General Convention)

5. That "each Diocese of this Church...find an effective way to foster a better understanding of homosexual persons, to dispel myths and prejudices about homosexuality, to provide pastoral support, and to give life to the claim of homosexual persons 'upon the love, acceptance and pastoral care and concern of the Church' as recognized by the General Convention Resolution in 1976"; (1985 General Convention)

6. That we "call upon Christians and all people of conscience to refrain from participating in or supporting campaigns intended to foster ill-will toward homosexual persons and to join us in recommitting ourselves to the cause of full civil rights for members of the gay community and an end to discrimination against homosexual persons within the Church." (198th Diocesan Convention 1981)

7. That we continue to affirm and uphold biblical standards in matters of sexual morality.

The Rev. Stephen R. Billings moved R-11, which was adopted with an amendment by the Rev. Roger Pickering as follows:

R-11: Resolution on South African Divestment

RESOLVED: This 203rd Convention, as called for by Resolutions of the 1985 General Convention and our own 202nd Convention, again calls upon the said institutions and congregations of the Diocese to give the highest priority to consideration of divestment as the most meaningful way to support those struggling against the evil of apartheid and to express our solidarity with Archbishop Desmond Tutu and other courageous leaders in South Africa and Namibia working for non-violent change.

The Rev. Peyton G. Craighill moved R-13. A motion to table was defeated. The resolution was adopted as presented.

R-13: Resolution on Companion Diocese Relationship

RESOLVED: That this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania shall authorize the Diocesan Council to enter into negotiations with a Diocese of another nation, to be selected at the discretion of the Diocesan Council under the guidance of our Bishops, for the purpose of forming a Companion Diocese Relationship.

The Very Rev. Timothy Pickering moved R-1, which was adopted as amended.

R-1: Resolution Concerning Evaluation of Deanery/Council Structure

RESOLVED: That the Mission Strategy Commission be commissioned to carry out an evaluation of Deanery and Diocesan Council structure;

RESOLVED: That the committee publish its evaluation and recommendations to convention delegates thirty days in advance of the 1987 Diocesan Convention.

R-4 was moved and adopted as amended.

R-4: Resolution on the Diocesan Mission Strategy Commission

RESOLVED: That the Diocesan Mission Strategy Commission report to the 204th Annual Convention of this Diocese recommendations aimed at a long-term renewal and expansion of congregations of this diocese:

RESOLVED: That the Diocesan Mission Strategy Commission make use of diocesan resources and committees including the Diocesan Coalition for Mission and Ministry; the Committee on Renewal, Evangelism and Church Growth; Mission Goal Committees II (Congregational Support and Mission Development) and III (Renewal, Evangelism and Church Growth) of Diocesan Council; and other individuals and committees concerned with urban parish ministry;

RESOLVED: That the Diocesan Mission Strategy Commission make progress reports to each meeting of Diocesan Council between the 203rd and the 204th Annual Conventions of this Diocese.

11:05 a.m. Mr. Jefferson Moak reported on the results of the second ballot. Elected were:

Deputy to General Convention: The Rev. William J. Fischler, Clergy
The Rev. James A. Trimble, Clergy
Ruth Fiesel, Laity

Standing Committee: no choice

The following then withdrew their names from the slate: The Rev. Warren E. Shaw, The Rev. Barbara C. Harris, The Rev. Melford E. Holland, and Mrs. Herbert Barron.

Mr. Moak gave instructions on the third ballot.

The Rev. Herbert W. Stevens moved R-9, which was adopted as amended.

R-9: Resolution on Arms Control

RESOLVED: That this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania endorse the position of a wide number of national church bodies and of its Diocesan Committee on Peacemaking that it is necessary to improve the political climate essential to bring about a reduction in the existing nuclear arms and to reduce the allocation of national resources to armaments;

AND FURTHER RESOLVED, that each of the parishes of this Diocese be encouraged to implement a program aimed at theological and ethical studies of the nuclear arms issues with a view to becoming informed citizens faithful to our Christian teachings and thus exercising responsible influence on the policy decisions of our nation.

The Rev. Hugh Dickinson moved R-19, which was adopted.

R-19: Commission on Family Life Ministry

RESOLVED: That a Commission on Family Life Ministry be established in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

The Rev. Herbert E. Rowe moved R-24, which was adopted.

R-24: Recently Retired Clergy

WHEREAS, the following clergy long active in the ministry of the Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania have retired since the 202nd Convention of the Diocese;

BE IT RESOLVED that this 203rd Convention honor them for their long service in this branch of the Holy Catholic Church, and pray for their continued ministry in another phase of His Work:

Harry L. Mayfield
P. Linwood Urban, Jr.
Ronald A. Wiley

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the clergy named.

The Rev. Herbert E. Rowe moved R-25, which was adopted.

R-25: Ordination Anniversaries

WHEREAS the Diocese of Pennsylvania has been blessed by the ministries of many clergy who have served God in his Church for many years;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this 203rd Convention return thanks to Almighty God for these clergy who, this year, are celebrating milestone anniversaries of their Ordination to the Priesthood:

Mrs. Frances S. Dean, Convenor of the Refugee Committee, moved R-22, which was adopted:

R-22: Refugee Resettlement

RESOLVED: That this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania express its appreciation to the Conestoga Deanery for its willingness to take on the responsibility of resettling refugees, particularly for four Amerasian families.

Special Order #2

Ruth Fiesel announced the special celebration of the ministry of Bishop Ogilby and the investiture of Bishop Bartlett, to be held on February 2, 1987, at the Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia.

The Rev. Herbert E. Rowe moved R-28, which was unanimously adopted by a standing vote and applause.

R-28: Honoring the Ministry of Lyman Cunningham Ogilby

WHEREAS, The Right Reverend Lyman Cunningham Ogilby has served the Diocese of Pennsylvania with distinction for fifteen years, and

WHEREAS, Bishop Ogilby has accomplished many things within the Diocese and within the Church at large, and

WHEREAS, Bishop Ogilby will on February Second, Nineteen hundred and Eighty-Seven, Celebrate the thirty-fourth Anniversary of his Consecration as a Bishop in the Church of God, and

WHEREAS, this is the last Annual Convention of the Diocese at which he will preside,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the Two Hundred and Third Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, assembled this Twenty-fifth day of October, Nineteen hundred and Eighty-Six, in Philadelphia. congratulates him for his many accomplishments in a long, healing and fruitful Episcopate, as we offer praise and thanks to God for this ministry among us, and we further offer our prayers and best wishes for his new ministry in a long and happy retirement with Ruth, his beloved wife.

The Rev. Charles O. Moore announced a Day of Prayers for World Peace on October 27, 1987, at St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, in response to an invitation to leaders of the world religion by Pope John II.

Bishop Ogilby read RE-22.

R-8: On Central America

RESOLVED, that the 203rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

1. Affirm the Resolution of the 1985 General Convention, calling for the United States to seek solutions through negotiation rather than by military means to the conflict in Central America;

2. Support the appeal of the Episcopal Diocese of Nicaragua to all churches to work for peace in Central America and to all nations to refrain from economic and military intervention in the region;

3. Call on the U.S. Government to halt all aid to the "Contras" or other military forces in Nicaragua and to seek a negotiated settlement based on the Contadora approach;

4. Express support for the actions of those churches in the United States which have established sanctuary for political refugees from countries in Central America in accordance with the Refugee Act of 1980 passed by the U.S. Congress and identical with the United Nations Protocol on Refugees; and encourage congregations in this Diocese to consider the establishment of sanctuary in their own parishes.

The Rev. A. Hugh Dickinson moved R-5, which was adopted.

R-5: On Clergy Sabbaticals

RESOLVED, that the 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania charge the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions to study the feasibility of Diocesan-sponsored Sabbatical programs and to report its recommendations to the 204th Convention.

The Rev. Glenn M. Matis moved R-3, which was adopted as amended.

R-3: Second Spouse Benefits

BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania urge the Officers and Board Members of the Church Pension Fund to review the policy regarding benefits to second marriage spouses of retired clergy.

The Rev. Wilfred F. Penny moved R-32, which was adopted.

R-32: Celebration of the Centenary of the Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral

RESOLVED, that the Diocese of Pennsylvania through its Ecumenical Commission and other agencies of the Diocese plan a worthy celebration of the centenary of the Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral.

The Rev. Sharline A. Fulton moved R-34, which was adopted.

R-34: Repeal of the Relocation Law concerning Hopi and Dine (Navaho) Peoples

RESOLVED, that this 203rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania hereby strongly urges our elected representatives in Congress to take steps to halt the forceful eviction of the native peoples of Big Mountain and the surrounding Joint Use Area of northeastern Arizona from their ancestral lands, and to work to repeal Public Law 93-531 - the Navajo-Hopi Land Settlement Act of 1974, which authorized the forced relocation of Hopi and Navaho Indians.

Mr. Jefferson Moak reported the results of the fourth ballot which was reached by a combined vote of both Houses. Elected were:

Deputy to General Convention: The Rev. Charles L. Poindexter
Arthur Criddle

The four alternates in order of vote are:

APPENDIX 6: SR 25 CIRCULATION AND DISSEMINATION OF MATERIAL AT CONVENTION

BE IT RESOLVED, that beginning with this 196th Diocesan Convention and in accordance with the practice of Diocesan Convention since the 186th Diocesan Convention, October 17-18, 1969, circulation on the floor of Convention of advertisements and literature not relevant to the business of the Convention will not be permitted; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that any material relevant to the business of Convention be submitted to the Secretary of Convention for decision as to the appropriate manner of dissemination and that no material may be circulated at Convention without the approval of the Secretary of Convention. (10/19/79)

APPENDIX 7: RE-8 COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES AND PENSIONS

Prepared June 30, 1986 from June 19 Report to Diocesan Council

The Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions expects to submit the following resolutions to the 203rd Diocesan Convention, October 24-25, 1986:

1. Salaries: Full-time employment--Increase the structure shown in 1985 R-9 by no more than 4 percent. Reaffirm all other provisions of 1985 R-9.

2. Compensating part-time employment--Increase the structure shown in 1985 R-10 by no more than 4 percent. Reaffirm all other provisions of 1985 R-10.

3. Allowances and Expenses: 1985 R-11 is essentially an update of previous years, and there has been no increase in the 30 percent figure for housing for at least 10 years, and no change in convention's guideline for auto expenses. It appears that both of these guidelines need to be reviewed with a thought toward updating. Housing and automobile costs represent a substantially larger proportion of clergy family and professional expenses than when these standards were set. If a sound basis for new levels can be determined in time, the commission expects to specify a numerical increase. If data is not available in time, the commission expects to advise that vestries review each situation for fair treatment; and the commission will gather data during 1986-87 for more specific numerical adjustment to be recommended to the 204th Convention in 1987.

4. Assessment: The commission expects to recommend continuation of the $40,000 annual assessment (1985 R-12) for 1987

5. Additional indexes.... (1985 R-13): The commission expects to respond to this continuing mandate of convention with an appeal process open to either clergy or vestries, when there is concrete evidence that the index does not reflect the job level accurately.

In addition to the foregoing specific resolutions, the commission expects to give a progress report on its studies of disability income and equity funding for clergy housing, with the hope of having an explicit resolution on each of these subjects ready for the 204th convention in October 1987.

The Diocesan Committee on Constitution and Canons is correlating and updating the various diocesan canons relating to clergy compensation and benefits and to the structure and work of the commission itself.

William J. Burke, Vice Chair
Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions

APPENDIX 8: RE-17 REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

The Church Foundation, a Pennsylvania non-profit corporation, is the designated trustee of funds and real estate for the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania. Its main responsibility is managing the Consolidated Fund, a common trust fund representing investments of over 300 church funds throughout the Diocese. As of the third quarter of 1986, the fund value was nearly $48 million.

Results over the past year are encouraging. As of September 5, 1986, the Fund unit value was $42.37, up 28% from $33.19 a year ago. Over the same time frame, the income per unit rose 5%, from $2.06 to $2.17. The total value of the Fund increased 29%, from $37,190,108 to $47,845,940. The so-called "total return" for the past year (income per unit plus unit appreciation as a percentage of the previous years-end value) was just over 34%.

APPENDIX 10:

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby

BREAD OF HOPE, LIFE, AND PEACE

ISAIAH 65:17-23--The New Creation
REV. 21:1-7--The New Heaven and New Earth
JOHN 1:9-14--The Word of Life

Once again, for the 203rd time, we are gathered here as the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, with the clergy and people of God, representative of all the sisters and brothers in our diocesan family. We have come together to pray and worship, to hear the Word of God in the Scriptures just read, to reflect and learn, and to discuss and resolve issues and concerns pertaining to our corporate Christian life and the world in which we live and move and have our being. We do this treasuring our past and all those heroes of the faith who have inspired and encouraged us; and we do this now hoping for new heavens and a new earth, assured that God's Holy Spirit will guide us.

New is an "in" concept. New is good, favorable, satisfying, pleasurable, attractive. New hat or house, new job or joke, new car or covenant, new baby or bishop--new IS better. We pray: let the whole world see and know that things which had grown old are being made new. Isaiah had it right: new heavens and a new earth augered hope for the future: hope for the children and the aged, for appropriate housing and adequate food for all. "The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox....They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain."

Isaiah was not a dewy and dreamy eyed idealist fantasizing an utopia, a pie-in-the-sky, make-believe world. Isaiah was a realist. He lived amidst a high rate of infant and adult mortality, where people worked hard and long for basic housing and meager food. Life was grim: toil, common; death, near. But Isaiah proclaims God's preference and plan for the world: children do not die; old people live full lives; those who build houses live in them; and those who plant vineyards eat the fruit. Isaiah's vision, his four point agenda, is germane, but it does not come without cost to church or nation: Food and health so that children need not die of hunger and malnutrition, old people protected and facilitated to contribute to the common good, so that their spirits do not wither away before their bodies do; involvement in economic and social development in order that working people and their families have the security and dignity of shelter and food.

Isaiah's four-point vision takes us into all the crucial issues which affect human existence today: family and community life, poverty, hunger, racism, sexism, terrorism, social justice, apartheid, ecology, human rights, interfaith dialogue, public policies, international trade, nuclear war and peace. Christians in this country, even Episcopalians, of course, will still disagree over what the most effective approaches are, which by necessity will involve political and economic judgments. But let us make no mistake about the vision, new heavens and a new earth; we will be moving in the same direction, towards the same goal, sharing our resources, witnessing with clarity to the God who has given his world this vision. This is God's mission, the true light that enlightens every man, authenticated with the Word becoming flesh and dwelling among us, full of grace and truth.

This is a very heavy trip--all the problems of the world--to lay upon only 85,000 people, the Diocese of Pennsylvania; but I will say it again and I will keep saying it here until February 2, 1987: This diocese has tremendous resources to offer to God and for this mission. I say this with love and admiration and in truth, illuminated by personal missionary experience for 21 years in the Philippines and South Dakota, and 15 years here. To be sure, I am proud of many of the social, educational, and ecumenical ministries I see and share in this historic diocese, now 203 years old; but I also know that many of our resources are still locked up locally in our sacristies, guild halls, and portfolios for internal consumption only. More of us--our attention and money--must be directed to where there is great drought. The Apocalypse of John said it: "Behold, I make all things new....To the thirsty I will give water without price from the fountain of the water of life."

We, of course, are aware of the pain and sickness, death and destruction, hunger and horror in our world, near and far, even in the midst of our own fellowship. What is expected of us when the needs are so overwhelming, pervasive and penetrating? Our Prayer Book puts is simply: "The duty of all Christians is to follow Christ; to come together week by week for corporate worship; and to work, pray, and give for the spread of the kingdom of God." And, "To give for the spread of the kingdom of God" can again be summarized in the biblical terms of the tithe: one tenth thankfully offered by the Christian, to the Temple, symbolizing God's dominion and redemption of his creation. That is the guideline for each one of us. But for the corporate Christian community, particularly the congregations and our diocese itself, our goal should be to give over to mission enterprises and needs outside or ourselves what we spend on ourselves, 50-50. And again we say this is only a step towards faithful discipleship of the God who gave Himself completely for the world HE loves and renews.

Alongside of the vision of Isaish, and essential to its application and implementation, is a related reality: corporate prayer and worship, the gathering and assembling of the community-on-mission to praise and celebrate Almighty God's presence in our shattered and broken world and to offer continual intercession for all those bent and battered by that world. We, of course, come to God's altar, not as triumphant victors because we have caught a glimpse of the vision but, as wounded and hurting seekers, yearning for the healing of each other and with the world. Indeed, we come knowing that God in Jesus Christ, the wounded healer, was wounded for us and for all the world. It is this shared woundedness which is the basis of solidarity between us, who are committed to this vision, and the brokenness of the world which continues to batter us and cripple millions of people in our nation and all over the globe.

We come back to where we began and to where we are: the world in which millions live riddled and racked with human hunger; with little hope for a better life; and scarred with violence, terror, war, and death. The God we know and worship will not let us turn our backs on this world, even if we could. This is the only world there is; it's God's world and ours. But we have a Gospel, good news. God in Jesus Christ, the wounded healer, wounded like us, does bring healing, help, and hope; he brings new life and peace. All things are brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made.

Hear these words of prayer from Japan:

> "O risen Christ you have made yourself known > to the disciples in the breaking of bread.
> The bread we break at this table is a sign of > the brokenness of all the world.
> Through our sharing in the bread of life in > our many Christian communities, open our eyes > and hands to the needs of all people.
> Let our hearts burn to share your gifts and > help us to go forth with one another with > bread, bread of hope, bread of life, bread > of peace."

APPENDIX 11: BISHOP COADJUTOR'S REMARKS TO CONVENTION

The Rt. Rev. Allen L. Bartlett, Jr.

First of all, I want to thank all of you who have made Jerrie and me feel so welcome in this wonderful Diocese. Already we love you!

The Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia region continue to be an unfolding series of challenges and delights. One of the delights last Saturday was walking to a Renaissance Fair not far from our home. There were magnificent Elizabethan costumes. One of the unusual features was a tournament in which knights in armor were merrily bashing each other. The sponsor of that particular event was the Society for Creative Anachronism.

That wonderful name got me thinking. One of the temptations which besets us Episcopalians, with our rich heritage of history and tradition, is to let our Church become a sort of ecclesiastical version of the Society for Creative Anachronism. As a former rector for nine years of a Shenandoah Valley Parish dating from 1814 with more Washingtons buried there than at Mt. Vernon and Dean for 16 years of a center city cathedral dating from 1822, I understand those temptations. And in Philadelphia we go back more than a hundred years before that! So.....the challenge is there.

But there is also that other side of us which wants to look forward. I am continually and powerfully made aware of the yearnings and the enormous resources in people, talent, and energy and ideas which are here. The Mission Strategy Commission, whose report you have as RE 26, will be one vehicle for receiving ideas from many sources. Its goal is to present to this Convention next year a coherent plan for moving forward during the years immediately ahead. I invite you to give us your thoughts in writing. Please send them to me by November 17.

Let me stress that what I hope for from this is a number of specific, attainable objectives to which we can give some of our best energy and devotion. I have some ideas; I know that you do, too. Let us see where God leads us on this.

As most of you know, I am reviewing the staff configuration at Church House. We shall have a leaner staff there next year. We shall doubtless have some new faces. In terms of the Episcopal function--what is done specifically by bishops--there will be a very large hole after February 2! I am asking Bishop Mosley to continue as an Assisting Bishop, and he has agreed to at least three Visitations per month, for some eight months of the year:

20-30 Visits. But with 171 congregations, more help is obviously needed. I am in the process of arranging for other assisting bishops making visits in 1987. I expect to bring more long-term recommendations to this Convention a year from now.

Lastly, I want to tell you what an absolute pleasure it is to work with Bishop Ogilby. He is warm and welcoming, and his style is collegial. He is wise as Solomon. I am grateful to God for the privilege of working for at least a year under his wise guidance.

APPENDIX 13: RE-20 REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The first stated meeting after the 202nd Annual Convention of the Diocese took place on October 22, 1985, at which time Certificates of Election were received from the Secretary of the Convention confirming the re-election of Mr. Stewart Dalzell and the Rev. William J. Fischler for five-year terms on the Committee. Also at that meeting the Committee elected the Rev. Herbert E. Rowe as President and Duffield Ashmead, III as Secretary.

During the fiscal year since the last Diocese Convention the Committee met monthly except for July and August, and held a special meeting in April to establish the 1987 budget for the Episcopate.

As in past years the Committee dealt with a very substantial number of real estate matters, involving in many cases requests by parishes for permission to sell rectories in order to establish funds to support housing allowances. Among other matters considered has been the proposed construction of a church, Sunday School, and office complex for the Church of Holy Nativity, Wrightstown, in which the Committee has been extensively involved with the financial and material planning.

One other subject deserves some mention. It had been the practice of the Standing Committee to request a tithe from the proceeds of the sale of the property requiring Standing Committee approval. During the course of the year that policy was re-examined and it was decided no longer to request the tithe. At the same time, however, it was recognized that the sale of property very often provides an opportunity for parish outreach and that is at all feasible.

The Committee also monitored closely the developments in connection with the defaults of Hotel Rittenhouse Associates. We have now been advised that construction will start at the end of November and the space is scheduled for occupancy twelve to eighteen months thereafter. In addition, the suit against Mr. Wolgin in respect of the default had been scheduled for trial on November 10. The ultimate site of Church House is still in the process of being considered against this background and in light of responsible stewardship of the Diocesan assets and of the desires of the people of the Diocese.

The primary concern of the Committee in connection with trust matters has continued to be the proper allocation of income from mission endowment funds, principally the funds created under the wills of Maud, Wilhelmina and Edward Sayers. It will be recalled that early in January three broad categories of mission were earmarked for support in a publication distributed to all clergy in the Diocese.

During the course of the year, questions arose concerning the extent to which endowment income of this kind should be used for normal budgetary expenses. As a result, William White as Chancellor and Stewart Dalzell as Chairman of the Mission Endowment Subcommittee outlined procedures to be followed in this regard which basically require that (1) trust funds for mission work shall be disbursed under the direction of the Bishop with advice and consent of the Standing Committee and (2) if it appears desirable to include any portion of such income in the annual Diocesan budget, the request of the Bishop should come from the Diocesan Committee of Finance, after which the Bishop will make a recommendation on the request to the Standing Committee who will approve the same if the funds are available and such use will not interfere with the non-budgetary mission work of the Diocese. The Bishop and Standing Committe approved these procedures in November, 1985, and they were thereafter published in the Diocesan News.

As an end product of this dialog, it was decided that a clarifying amendment to Diocesan Canon 13.3 should be proposed at this Convention which was prepared by Messrs. White and Dalzell with the participation and approval of the Diocesan Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Committee approved Episcopal elections in a number of Dioceses as follows: The Rev. Charles Irving Jones as Bishop of Montana, The Rev. Valentin Ticobay as Bishop of the Southern Philippines, The Rev. George Edmonds Bates as Bishop of Utah, The Rev. Donald Purple Hart As Bishop of Hawaii, and The Very Rev. Calvin Cabell Tennis as Bishop of Delaware; The Rev. John Herbert MacNaughton as Bishop Coadjutor of West Texas, The Rev. Douglas Edwin Theuner as Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire, The Rev. Daniel Lee Swenson as Bishop Coadjutor of Vermont, The Rev. Francis Campbell Gray as Bishop Coadjutor of Northern Indiana; The Rev. Robert O. Miller as a Suffragan Bishop in Alabama, and the Rev. Ronald H. Haines as a Suffragan Bishop in Washington. In addition, consents were given for the holding of Episcopal elections in a number of jurisdictions.

The Committee was particularly pleased to have been involved with the planning of and participation in the Consecration of Dean Bartlett. Since his Consecration Bishop Bartlett has been a regular attender of the meetings of the Committee, along with Bishop Ogilby, and his advice has been most helpful.

The Committee approved nominations to the governing bodies of various organizations of the Diocese, including Cathedral Village and Episcopal Community Services.

Once again the Committee has had invaluable help from any number of people, but special mention should be made of Mr. Geoffrey Stengel, Executive Vice President of the Church Foundation who retired as of July 1, 1986 and whose tireless efforts in that position will be badly missed.

* * * *

Committee meetings are usually held in the offices of the Diocese on the fourth Tuesday of every month except July and August. If anyone wishes to appear on a particular matter, it is requested that advance notice be given to the Secretary so that the Committee agenda can be efficiently prepared.

APPENDIX 14: RE-26 REPORT OF THE MISSION STRATEGY COMMISSION

The new Mission Strategy Commission of the Diocese of Pennsylvania has been formed and has begun its meetings. It is charged with the responsibility for developing proposals, over the course of the next year, as to directions in which God seems to be calling the Diocese of Pennsylvania in the years immediately ahead.

Its membership, listed on the following pages, includes representatives from each Deanery, Diocesan Council, Standing Committee, and all Diocesan Mission Goal Committees, as well as the previous Long Range Planning Committee.

The Mission Strategy Commission will review the many creative and effective things now going on, areas inneed of improvement, and needs and opportunities which have not yet been addressed. The Commission hopes to:

* Identify key objectives and goals which the Diocese ought to address in the next five years of more.
* Order these in priority.
* Devise means of funding these as necessary.
* Propose ongoing methods by which these recommendations are to be carried out, as well as ongoing planning structure.
* Present these recommendations to the 1987 Diocesan Convention.

The Commission will report regularly to the Diocesan Council as it proceeds. It will make a final report with recommendations to the 1987 Diocesan Convention. Because significant action almost always requires funding, it is anticipated that the Commission will include recommendations as to a possible capital funds drive.

It is projected that the Commission will receive data and recommendations from all possible sources during the remainder of this fall; review these and develop priorities during the winter; and in the spring consider funding possibilities.

Dreams, visions, hopes and reflections from all segments of the Diocese are warmly invited. Letters inviting such have been sent to all clergy, senior wardens, and chairs of diocesan commissions and committees. Contributions should be sent in writing to my office by November 17.

We ask the prayers of all as together we seek God's will for this blessed Diocese.

Allen L. Bartlett, Jr.

APPENDIX 15: REPORT OF THE STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

The Pennsylvania Plan of Stewardship has been a part of our Diocese since 1976. During those years over 20 parishes have used the plan to educate our brothers and sisters in Christ. Over that time the men and women who have served as consultants have found that their services have helped parishes to initiate renewal, parish renewal based upon understanding of where they stand and where they want to go on their stewardship journeys.

Money is a sacrament. So are time and talent symbols of our onward conversions. We take the rector and vestry and approximately 25 percent of a parish from these outward symbols of ourselves and point them toward Jesus. We use scripture, sacraments, witness, worship, and prayer. We measure our effectiveness in increases in pledges and in the increases of time and talent devoted by parishioners to God's work in the parish and in the world.

Father John Martin is our Stewardship Officer. In addition to serving as the director, he is the rector of Christ Church and St. Michael's, Germantown. John has brought a pastoral element to our work that magnifies the stewardship message. We are most thankful for his dedication.

Our committee consists of ten men and women. We are equally divided between lay and ordained volunteers. Because of our diversity we can minister to a broad variety of parish situations. The biggest change in the group since 1976 has been our move into broader stewardship consultations. Not only do we use the Pennsylvania Plan of Stewardship but we teach stewardship in informal parish settings to spread the news.

During the past year we have worked with 27 parishes. In addition we offered two workshops on biblically based stewardship. The first workshop was held in the spring and focused on the biblical basis for stewardship. The second wordshop was held in the fall and focused on the practical aspects of effective stewardship education at the parish level.

We see an expanding role for our committee in the next several years. We want to increase the hours that our Stewardship Officer spends with the parish leadership. Stewardship education is an evolutionary process. Our goal is to change attitudes and help our fellow Christians find better ways to offer up to God their talents of time, treasure, and talent in thanksgiving for all God's gifts.

APPENDIX 16: EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

President's Report

This has been a year to remember. Personal contacts were supportive, the work stimulating and opportunities given to keep Our Lord Jesus Christ the center of all.

With great excitement your delegates went to the 38th Triennial meeting of the Episcopal Church Women in Anaheim, California. An exhilerating experience for us, acquiring new skills in ministry and leadership. The theme, "One Body-One Spirit" (Ephesians 4.4) speaks to our oneness, expressed in the logo reproduced on the cover page of this report. The lily suggests the Radiance surrounding the Cross. A Christian symbol, the lily stands for the Resurrection. The Radiance, (or nimbus) represents His Word, continuing to shine forth, all in a circle of love. On the opening day of Triennial there were 460 delegates and 101 dioceses represented. Worship is a highlight of the Triennial meeting. National and international groups participated with banners, dance and original music. There were 36 Work Shops, 4 Issues Panels, "Luncheon With" series and the "Gathering Place." With a busy schedule, time was limited to relax, reflect, and share in General Convention. For "fun" time the magic touch of the Disney people was near. Your delegates are anxious to tell you about our exhibit and give a slide presentation of this event, schedule us in your fall programs.

Women are catalysts for action as indicated in the annual reports of Vice Presidents of the departments of Prayer and Worship, World Service, Diocesan Ministries, United Thank Offering, Promotion, Missions and chairpersons of Lay Ministries, Food Crises Fund, Lea Hill Scholarship, and Women's History. As you read the reports, let us focus on the opportunities given you to become involved in extending awareness of these ministries, offering leadership in modifying traditionally structured programs, to meet the "needs" in today's world, making Spiritual enrichment the center of all activities, realizing our commitment carries with it an obligation to respond.

Histories (60) of Episcopal Church Women of the Past Diocese of Pennsylvania are available. Order a copy to "share" in your Parish. Let's retrieve facts of women; their deeds and involvement in church and community, before they are lost from the memory of all surviving parishioners. Begin now a collection of Oral Histories before it is too late. This is the responsibility of women in our 170 churches.

A Resource Booklett has been planned to provide information about the E.C.W. Board and services available in the Diocese, to help you experience your ministry. This will be mailed to presidents and leaders of women's groups in all churches. We receive reports of many interesting programs by women in the Diocese. An annual publication of these from all our Parishes could be useful.

Episcopal Church Women continue a presence for service in the Diocese, with membership on Council, Commissions, and Committees participating in mutual ministry of "caring" and "sharing" (see department's reports) and being a source for advocacy in communities. Our diversity is the foundation for conscious and continuous effort to improve the lives of all.

Programs offered included "Caring and Sharing"; "Abuse"; "Christian Parenting" with Family Life Committee; "Children Bearing Children"; "Skills to Say No"; "Program Evaluation and Planning Day"; "A Day of Recollection". Our Department of Prayer and Worship offers many experiences to enrich our spiritual growth.

A Bus Trip to All Saints' Convent, Catonville, Maryland and Inner Harbor, Baltimore, was offered for relaxation.

ECW Board meetings are open to all. Several visitors sharing their areas of concern were from Church Periodical Club; Cole's House, ECS, Elizabeth Price Martin League #3 and People's Emergency Center.

As I end my term as President, I am very aware of the Previlege which had been mine to work with such a dedicated group of women who have enthusiasm and determination, with a vision to do His Work.

I thank the Board for developing an awareness to ECW programs so faithfully on Parish and Diocesan levels, for work accomplished and challenges of tasks accepted. I am grateful for having the opportunity to work in Church House where the atmosphere is one of concern and commitment. I thank our Bishops, the staff, and support personnel for making my "3" years stay pleasant and rewarding.

To all -- remember, "Life is precious, handle with Prayer".

United Thank Offering

There seems to be a strong renewal of interest in the United Thank Offering. There are now 149 parishes participating on a continuing basis. During the past three years, the emphasis has been on promotion and personal communication with as many parishes as possible. This has been accomplished through four mailings each year to parish custodians, follow-up contacts with rectors and custodians, and presentations of the U.T.O. program in various parishes. Diocesan Ingatherings are planned at different locations in the Diocese. Much of our success is also the result of the efforts of parish custodians to bring the UTO Story to their churches. THANK YOU!!!

The Fall, 1987 Diocesan Ingathering & Family of Evening Prayer was held at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square on Sunday, November 24. The speaker was The Rev. Franklin Turner, Assistant to the Bishop. The Ingathering and Service was followed by a Tea given by the Women of Holy Trinity. The Fall Spring Ingathering will be held at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill on Wednesday, May 14. The speaker will be Dr. Emma Lou Benignus, theological scholar and educator. The ECW Annual Meeting and Tea will follow. Our sincere thanks to the women of Holy Trinity, Philadelphia and the women of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill for the very lovely receptions they have prepared.

The U.T.O. program has been presented at the following parishes: All Saints, Crescentville; Trinity, Ambler; All Saints, Norristown; Church of Our Saviour, West Philadelphia; Christ Church & St. Michael's, Germantown; St. Andrew's, West Vincent; Calvary, Northern Liberties and St. Mary's, Ardmore.

During the past year, the United Thank Offering Committee had an opportunity to participate in an expanded role in the distribution and review of the applications for UTO Grants.

In September, 1985, it was my privilege to represent our Diocese as United Thank Offering Custodian by personally presenting our offering to Presiding Bishop Allin at the Opening Service of the General Convention in Anaheim, California. This presentation included the Fall, 1984 and Spring 1985 offering which totaled $88,500 with an additional $6,700 after the deadline for the Triennial presentation. These offerings from all Provinces totaled 2.8 million dollars which were then distributed among 122 projects to receive UTO Grants (78 grants in U.S., 34 grants overseas) to use in 1986. The Episcopal Community Services In Home Respite Care Program received a grant of $16,951. Upon return, I participated in the presentation of the Triennial Slide Program at St. Philip-In-The-Field, Emmanuel, Holmesburg and All Saints, Torresdale.

A special thank you to my assistant, Celi Putnam and the Following members of the UTO Committee: Alice Pitt, Polly Randall, and Lucille Barnum.

Nominating Committee

"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord." Psalm 19:14

A cover letter and form requesting nominations for offices were mailed in September to Clergy, Deaneries, and E.C.W. Parish Presidents and Key Women. The nominating committee received nominations and from the list prepared the following slate and submitted it to the Diocesan Board of Episcopal Church Women for approval.

The slate was approved by the E.C.W. Board and a copy sent to Bishop Ogilby for his approval. His approval was received. These names will be submitted at the Annual Meeting for election.

Nominations will be accepted from the floor if prior consent of the women has been received.

Lea Hill Scholarship Committee

This program year, the Lea Hill Scholarship Committee was pleased to be able to grant scholarship aid totalling $3,100 to five women. The grantees attend La Salle College, Temple University, Andover Newton Theological School, and General Theological Seminary.

Three of the five are eligible, and have requested renewal; and three new applicants have qualified for grants for the academic year, 1986 - 1987.

The 1986 Lea Hill Scholarship Month (February), again proved fruitful. This effort, plus other contributions and memorializations in the Book of Remembrance have enabled the Fund Committee to award slightly larger grants per semester than have been possible in recent years.

The need is still far greater than the Lea Hill Fund can meet, however, so the Committee has plans which will provide a permanent income base for the Fund. Hopefully, with increased contributions, more of the escalating demand can be answered.

Department of World Services

I would like to express my sincere thanks to everyone for providing me with the opportunity and experience in attending my very first Triennial in September at Anaheim, California. Karey Smith, Bette Potts and I were delegates and Lillian Milan attended as a visitor. For us, it was a great spiritual involvement, with a variety of sisters in Christ (about 500). It was also a time for friendships, fellowships and serious responsibilities. I shall always remember those eight days in Anaheim as the most rewarding experience in my life.

On October 9, Bette Potts and I spoke and presented slides on Triennial at All Saints Church, Torresdale. This procedure was repeated at our "Leadership Training" at Church of the Saviour on October 25, and at a Communion Breakfast on December 1 at St. Philip-in-the-Field, Oreland.

The following parishes hosted an Emporium in their deanery on Monday, September 30, 1985 with guest speakers from the following agencies:

Brandywine - Church of The Good Samaritan, Paoli
American Red Cross - Betty Jeitles

Bucks - St. Andrew's Church, Yardley
Seamen's Church Institute - Father Secor

Conestoga - St. Michael's Church, Yeadon
Riverview Home - Alice Smarouski

Delaware - The Church of St. John the Evangelist, Essington
Inglis House

Fairmount - St. Barnabas Church, Kensington
Aid for Friends

Merion - Church of St. George, Ardmore
Center for Human Services

Montgomery - Church of The Advent, Hatboro
Voyage House

Pennypack - All Saints Church, Torresdale
Mission of St. Paul's Church, Chester - Father Penaloza

Schuylkill - Calvary Church, Northern Liberties
Philadelphia Committee for the Homeless

Southwark - Trinity Memorial Church, Philadelphia
O.B. Teen Clinic, Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Valley Forge - Calvary Church, Conshohocken
Episcopal Hospital

Wissahickon - House of Prayer, West Oak Lane
Bethanna Home - Mrs. Weaver

World Services Packets and free sewing materials were distributed among the attending parishes.

I was delightfully overwhelmed when figures came in showing that more than 200 churchwomen attended their Deanery Emporium. I am trying to erase the old way of thinking that you must sew in order to attend Emporium. Today, that is no longer true. Emporium is for everyone. Please attend if only for the fellowship among deanery sisters (exchanging ideas) or hearing outstanding speakers from agencies in and around the Philadelphia area, thus learning more about these agencies. Attending your Deanrey Emporium will prove to be very rewarding.

Parishes throughout the diocese observed World Service Sunday in October with a clothing drive for children and adults. Layette Sunday, celebrated in March, brought in clothing for infants to size 6. Following each clothing drive, all participating parishes made their own distribution of clothing looking to their neighborhood priorities first. The Department of World Services donated more than 3,580 articles of clothing to neighborhood agencies. From financial contributions, a check for $350.00 was sent to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

The following 1985-86 Mini-Reps conducted their Deanery Emporiums and outreach to all parishes. World Services could not function without them. My thanks to the following:

Bettie Hall	- Brandywine	Leila Ward	- Montgomery
Liz Butta	- Bucks	Dorothy Villante	- Pennypack
Dorothy Lites	- Conestoga	Elaine Wood	- Schuylkill
Florence Durbin	- Delaware	Nora Wilson	- Southwark
Teressa Joyner	- Fairmount	Almeda Heller	- Valley Forge
Sylvia Adams	- Merion	Marjorie Harris	- Wissahickon

Report of the Prayer and Worship Committee

Believing, as we do, that God has put salt on the tongue of every human being who ever lived making us hunger and thirst to know and love Him and believing that our relationships--thereby enhancing them--the Diocesan Prayer & Worship Committee of the E.C.W. wishes to keep all of the Women in our Diocese well informed about all of the marvelous opportunities for spiritual growth that we have here. Spiritual growth for us means deepening and strengthening our relationship with the Living Lord Christ and then doing what He asks of us.

Retreats, Quiet Days, Workshops on Prayer, Workshops on Spiritual Direction, Prayer Groups, Anglican Fellowship of Prayer, Bible Reading Fellowship, Conferences on Ministry, Evangelism, Mission, the Hungry and Homeless, World Peace--all are part of our prayer life, on "this fragile earth, our island home." Very few Dioceses could offer such a rich variety of opportunities to enlarge our vision and evoke a greater response of love for Christ and His Will for all people. We have tried to bring to the attention of the Women of our Diocese the resources of the Spiritual Growth Committee, of which the Rev. Michael Becker is Chairman; the Philadelphia Theological Institute, of which the Very Rev. James C. Ranson is Dean; and the many Retreats, Quiet Days, Prayer Workshops, and various Conferences relating to the life of prayer that St. Margaret's House, of which the Very Rev. Sister Adele Marie is Sister-in-Charge, in Germantown offers each year. I may be a bit prejudiced, but it seems to me that St. Margaret's House does have some of the best programs in the Diocese. (Something like 2,000 people come through our door each year!)

The Vice President of the Department of Prayer and Worship has opened every Executive Committee and Executive Board Meeting with prayer and a brief meditation. She and her Committee are hoping to have a Quiet Day for all the Women of the Diocese in the fall during which there would be guided meditation and ample time allowed for private prayer. The Vice President has conducted several Retreats during the past year either at St. Margaret's House of in various Churches of the Diocese, and she has led a Prayer Workshop at St. Margaret's House which has met every two weeks from early October until early April. Other members of the Committee well qualified to serve Churches of the Diocese in this way are: The Rev. Elizabeth Eisenstadt, Mrs. Richard Bauder, Mrs. Robert States, Mrs. C. L. Raush, Mrs. Peyton Crighill, and Mrs. Frank Di Cesari.

We end this report with a brief description from a book about Spiritual Direction by Michael Thornton in which he gives his ideas of the spiritual life, the life of prayer:

> Religion is about the living relationship between Man and God, God and the world, so ultimately everything comes under this heading. This relationship between man and God, given in Baptism, continued by grace, forged by prayer, is that life more abundant which Christ has promised. Prayer in its widest and deepest sense is response to this given status; it is an entry into the eternal realm, into the transcendent dimension, the Kingdom of God, which through the Body of Christ is the one power of redemption for the universe and everything that is in it. Religion is not concerned with happiness but with joy, not with mediocrity but with glory. Christ didn't come to make life a little more bearable; He promised life more abundant; neither did He exhort His disciples to aim at respectable mediocrity but at perfection....

Well, as you can see, Christ is our treasure and our joy; and we long to have the whole world and love Him.

Mary Michael, SSM
Vice President
Prayer & Worship Committee

Emergency Food Crisis Fund

Reports coming in from food cupboards and soup kitchens this winter tell of increased activity - more children and elderly people. St. Mark's Locust Street, has seen a 10 percent increase. The Church of the Advocate soup kitchen is averaging 300 people a day.

The committee has met regularly, keeping up with correspondence, checking on cupboards, and dispursing funds. Unfortunately, donations have dropped almost 50 percent, form $13,597 last year down to $7,775 this year. An additional cupboard was added to the list, St. John the Free, which was no longer able to keep up with the demand.

The food cupboards and kitchens, independently operated, stretch through the five-county area. About half are Episcopalian and half community based. All of them give to the needy, regardless of affiliation. Those receiving our assistance this year are:

Church of the Advocate - food cupboard
Church of the Advocate - soup kitchen
Calvary Episcopal Church, Rockdale
Christ Church and St. Ambrose, Philadelphia
Colonial Neighborhood Council, Conshohocken
Coordinating Council for Health & Welfare, Warminister
Fish Interfaith, Norristown
Interfaith of Eastern Montgomery County, Abington
La Communidad Hispana, Kennett Square
Lighthouse Community Center, Philadelphia
Open Line, East Greenville
Pottstown Interfaith
St. John the Free, Philadelphia
St. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia
St. Luke's, Philadelphia
Coatesville Area Emergency Food Cupboard
Church of the Advent, Hatboro
St. Mark's, Philadelphia
St. Mary's, Bainbridge
Bucks County Opportunity Council
St. Elisabeth's Church, Mifflin
St. Barnabas, Haddington
Greater St. John's United Church of God, West Philadelphia
Zion Hill Baptist St., West Philadelphia

Total disbursements since the founding of the fund are as follows:

February through April 30, 1975	$ 852.00
May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976	6,508.12
May 1, 1976 through April 30, 1977	5,321.80

Church Women United

Church Women United is a national ecumenical movement, which encompasses nearly a half million women in this country.

The Greater Philadelphia United of CWU has an active program each year.

The Episcopal Church Women participated in the CWU Christmas Stocking Program and helped them exceed their goal of 1,500 filled stockings. These stockings were gratefully received by the Philadelphia State Hospital, Haverford State Hospital, Woodhaven State Hospital, and Norristown State Hospital.

Members of ECW also attended the 62nd Annual Luncheon sponsored by CWU. The luncheon this year was held at the Adams Mark Hotel on Tuesday, April 15, 1986.

Other programs for this year are:

1. Festival of the Pentecost, Mann Center, Fairmont Park, on May 17.
   This will be a gathering of God's People to watch and wait and pray together.

2. Global Celebration on World Day of Prayer, opening Centennial Event on Day of Pentecost.
   May 17, Riverside Church, New York City.

The local president of CWU is Doris Tofel. CWU is Unity, Love, and Faith of all members and is located at 1720 Chestnut Street.

Lay Ministry Committee

The Lay Ministry Committee regularly looks for ways women can extend their ministries to one another and to the community at large. For the third year we have worked on the project Children Bearing Children. This project began with a day with the Rt. Rev. Brooke Mosley. A year later this was followed by an all-day general conference.

Last summer the committee met twice, first to summarize its past work, to listen to alternatives, and to select its course for this year. The second meeting was to preview the "Postponing Sexual Involvement (How-to-say-NO)" curriculm, developed and published by Marion Howard at Emory University. The conclusion of these two meetings was to ask that the Diocesan Episcopal Church Women purchase both the young peoples and the adult curriculum and make these available to parishes and groups of parishes for sharing.

The promotion of the use of this material was the primary agenda of this year. A day of training in the advocacy of this resource was conducted for us by Sister Nora Dennehy of CORA Services and member of the Coordinating Council for Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention—City of Philadelphia. A very brief announcement at each Deanery meeting was the first goal. The second was a brief presentation of more of the content and the slides and tapes. By the end of March 1986 each parish clergy should have had an opportunity to be aware of the potential for local use in a setting that encouraged questions and enlargement.

Materials were prepared for display and distribution at Diocesan Convention in October. These were received with thoughtful and positive comment. The same display and handouts were used at the Bourse during the Fifth Annual Women's Festival, where the response was enormous and enthusiastic. These materials will be circulated this spring for continued consideration in planning and schedulaing for next year. Its use in ecumenical and neighborhood cooperative efforts are among the successes reported.

Training for parish volunteers to facilitate the use of this material has been made available in cooperation with the Youth Services Coordinating Office of the City of Philadelphia. This Spring, Episcopal Church Women have attended 2 training sessions, one given through the hospitality of Sister Agnes Marie of the Church and Pastoral Services at Misercordia Hospital and the other through CORA Services on Verree Road. Additional training sessions will be made available through this network of mutual support as more volunteers offer their time to this educational opportunity.

Committee members have shown imagination, persistence and resoursefulness. Representing deaneries are: Dorothy Rae, Brandywine; Millicent Graf, Bucks; Barbara Irving, Conestoga; Elizabeth Cooper, Delaware; Bette Potts, Fairmount; Catherine Stradley, Merion; Elizabeth Bedinger and Rozanne Grigger, Montgomery; Marie De Witt and Dorothy Villante, Pennypack; Karey B. Smith, Schuylkill; Suzanne Foley and Dorothy Stevens, Southwark; Nancy Ritter, Valley Forge and Dorothy Thompson, Wissahickon.

Community resources have shared their special talents with us as we have tried to identify more ways and places to advocate the use of the SKILLS TO SAY NO curriculum. Lucille Ott Howard, Youth Services Corrdinating Office and staff for the Coordinating Council for Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention--City of Philadelphia, provided us with information and support. The committee has circulated the published chart of available services of that office as part of its outreach.

"Children Bearing Children" will be an on-going project of the Lay Ministry Committee.

Department of Diocesan Ministries

Lord, direct us as we assemble to do your bidding. Take control of our hearts and minds and let them work for you. Direct us as we express our Christian commitments and responsibilities. AMEN

The above prayer has been the guide and inspiration of the Department of Diocesan Ministry members as we met to plan the Program for the 1985-1986 year.

The Department of Diocesan Ministry endeavors to bring to our Diocesan Family information pertaining to the various Ministries in the Diocese. We are concerned with promoting knowledge of programs, agencies, and ministries. Such information and knowledge we hope will encourage understanding, involvement and support.

During the past year, we have been actively involved with the Family Life Ministry's presentation of "Christian Parenting". Its Challenge - Its Mission and with the Lay Ministry Committee's Program on "Children Bearing Children". It was because of those involvements and the prevalence of abuse in today's Society and the devasting impact it has on the family that we have dovoted our efforts to the issue of "Abuse".

On Saturday, March 15, 1986, we presented "Abuse - A Universal Problem", at Christ Church, Media. Our purpose was to get abused persons to recognize abuse in its many forms, to publicize the available services and to inform responsible Diocesan women that volunteers are a basic component relative to the success of the services. Directors of abuse centers from Bucks, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties spoke about the causes and effects of abuse; the laws that are in place to protect the abused; the need for additional laws and how to advocate to put them in the system; the ramifications on the family if it continues to exist and how the church needs to reach out and take an active stand on the issue. It was a valuable time for those who attended, that is, to learn and hopefully to further disseminate that information which we shared together.

I wish to take this opportunity to acknowledge my supportive members, who worked tirelessly towards the growth and usefulness of the Department. To them, many thanks for a year of accomplishment!

APPENDIX 16: (cont.) EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

Women's History Committee

The publication, "Episcopal Women of the Past" of the Diocese of Pennsylvania began as a project for our Bicentennial celebration. This year, thirty more biographies were added to the original thirty, and the new edition was ready for sale in time for the celebration of Women's History Week. The book is in loose-leaf form so that additional histories may be added each year. These, we trust, will be stories of women who were active both in the church and the community, and will represent churches not yet included. The charge is $5.00 (pick-up at Church House) or $6.50 (if mailed). Please make check payable to Episcopal Church Women - History. It is hoped that there will be a copy in every Church.

I wish to thank all who made this publication possible. Gratitude is extended to our E.C.W. President, Karey B. Smith who have dedicated support to all phases of this project, and to Doris Connor, our Secretary, for outstanding work on the project.

Elizabeth E. Higbee, Chairperson
Women's History Committee

Department of Promotion

The number one priority of the Department of Promotion is to publicize the work and service of Episcopal Church Women. Thanks to its wide distribution to parish members throughout the Delaware Valley, our chief vehicle of communication is the Diocesan News section of The Episcopalian.

A comprehensive round-up article citing the highlights of E.C.W.'s fall and early-winter programs was prepared by the department and published in the February Episcopalian. We have also worked with several department and committee chairs as they wrote articles about their programs.

Much of our time and energy has been allocated to the preparation of a program handbook for ECW leaders in the parishes. During the fall, a questionnaire was sent to ECW diocesan leaders, and the information received was organized for publication. Currently we are endeavoring to complete an extensive listing of sources for speakers and information as well as for audiovisual and printed materials. It is hoped that the handbooks will be sent to parish leaders in time for their fall planning.

ECW has such a rich variety of programs and events that the promotion department's task is simplified by the ready availability of information on the diocesan level. More effort, however, should be made to encourage the reporting of innovative parish activities, including projects that warrant imitation.

Our grateful thanks go to President Karey Smith for her continuing advice and assistance, to News Editor Janette Pierce of The Episcopalian for assuring that ECW activities receive ample coverage in the Diocesan News, and to committee member Elizabeth Bedinger for her generosity and willingness to tackle any assignment.

The Girls' Friendly Society

The Girls' Friendly Society in the Diocese of Pennsylvania continues to be an important part in the life of many parishes and communities. We welcome into the fellowship all girls, regardless of race, creed or church preference and offer them the opportunity to grow, discover, learn, and be creative. There are three age groups: Juniors (6-10), Intermediates (11-13), and Seniors (14-21). Sponsor groups and individuals encourage and support our program.

A full year of activities for all age groups took place in the branches and Diocese. Our Annual Junior Day was held at Christ Church, Pottstown. Songs, dances, and skits were presented based on the theme "Friendship". About ninety girls participated in the youth weeks at Holiday House. Youth groups are also finding it a great place for retreats. We also held a very successful leadership training weekend in September.

St. Simon the Cyrenian hosted our World Day of Prayer Service, about 100 members and friends attended. The branches provided tray favors for 14 different hospital and homes on various holidays. The Gingerbread Booth at the Episcopal Hospital May Fete is also our responsibility. The proceeds go to the hospital through the Elizabeth Price Martin League. Seamen's Institute and Episcopal Community Services are also supported by our branches.

A beautiful Mission Day service was held at the Chinese Christian Church. Mrs. MacKenzie explained the work of the center.

The G.F.S. will hold a National Assembly at Connecticut College in New London, our Diocese is in charge of the Workshops. There will be one dealing with Teenage Suicide and one dealing with worship, using paints, puppets and pantomine. Twenty girls and leaders will be attending from our area. Our Junior Delegate is Cathy Johnson from St. Thomas' Church, West Philadelphia, and the alternate delegate is Katie Powers, of Emmanual Church, Holmesburg.

We hope more churches in our Diocese will be interested in starting G.F.S. branches. Wherever there are girls, G.F.S. is the answer. We are grateful for the interest and support of the Diocese and Parish E.C.W.'s.

Elizabeth Price Martin League #2

Episcopal Hospital

The Elizabeth Price Matin League #2 has had a rewarding year in its continuing service to the hospital.

The first Annual Nursing Scholarship of $1,000 was given by the league to a deserving student.

The league sponsored the 52nd Annual May Fete on Wednesday, May 22 and combined with the hospital staff and churches a successful event was enjoyed by all.

On Monday, December 2, a Christmas Lobby Bazaar was held. Everyone enjoyed the Christmas tree and the colorful holiday decorations.

Christmas gifts for Harrison House were purchased and poinsettia plants were ordered for the chapel. Candy canes were distributed to patients in the Out-Patient departments.

Doctor's Day was celebrated on March 31 and the entire medical staff received red carnations.

The league sponsored an exciting "Episcopal's Night at the 76ers" in the Spectrum and were rewarded when the 76ers won over the Atlanta Hawks.

The Gift Shop continues to serve patients and staff. Volunteers make the rounds of the hospital with the popular shopping cart.

The library is well utilized by both patients and employees.

The profits from the many league activities will be used this year to build a patio outside the cafeteria, provide new furniture for Harrison House, and professional landscaping of the grounds surrounding the hospital.

You are cordially invited to our 53rd Annual May Fete on Thursday, May 22. (Rain date: May 23).

Elizabeth Price Martin League #3

Riverview Branch

Dear Friends of E.P.M.L. #3:

Thank you for your generous response to our Christmas letter. Your gifts make it possible to carry on our usual program at Riverview.

On December 30, 1985 we had a Christmas-New Year Party. The Girls Friendly Society from Emmanuel Church came to sing and entertain the residents and us. The girls served the refreshments. We presented a small gift to each resident. Everyone wore a fancy party hat which added greatly to the festive mood.

Because the weather is so unpredictable in February, we postponed our Annual Tea Party until May. The ladies in particular look forward to this so we try to provide a little touch of elegance with candles, flowers, ect.

The Annual Communion and Breakfast will be held on April 8, 1986. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m. in the Dining Room. Come and join us. You will be most welcome.

In June we will be on hand to assist with the Annual Picnic. Last year we donated and distributed 500 balloons. Plans for the picnic are not complete, but we will be there and will have some input personally and monetarily.

Men's underwear is badly needed at Riverview. We have earmarked $200.00 for the purchase of these items. Without your help none of these things could be accomplished.

The weekly communion service celebrated by the Very Rev. Edward Price on Tuesday mornings is well attended. Father Price brings the sacrament to approximately 150 people each week.

In behalf of all the folks at Riverview, we say thanks again for your gifts, interest, and loving care.

Nancy Snyder

Elizabeth Price Martin League for Service #4

Fair Acres Geriatric Center - Lima, PA

The EPM League is engaged in the loving service of many needs of the residents at Fair Acres every Tuesday on a year-round basis. Our schedule in the summer months is more relaxed than during the rest of the year because of individual holidays but it is a rare Tuesday when we are not represented. Our members visit and hold services in each of five buildings each week. Building #8 encompasses twelve floors. Our members are kept busy as we scatter to visit and come together for worship.

We are blessed with the help of clergy from six parishes on a regular basis and we can call on three other parishes for help as it is needed. Four parishes in the Diocese remember us each year with a most welcome monerary donation. On the last Tuesday of a month, nine months in a year, there is a birthday party in Building #7 and each of nine parishes has chosen a month to bring refreshments and a program full of fun to Fair Acres.

During this past year we have managed to have three pianos tuned and the organ in the Chapel repaired. We were told that one of the recreation therapists is adept at singing and playing the guitar. We were delighted to be able to buy the finest possible guitar for her use at Fair Acres. This gift has brought much delight to the residents on many occasions.

We continue to maintain the Memorial Garden, a delightful haven of rest and beauty, which provided the initial impetus for the beautification of all Fair Acres. We joined the Institution in its Annual Festival in June by staffing and supplying the bake table. We participated in the Annual Flea Market and held our Annual Christmas Bazaar for the benefit of the residents, staff, and their families. At present writing we are anticipating our Annual Clothes-Line Sale in the patio of Building #7. This is an event eagerly awaited by the residents. Our Annual Meeting will be held at St. David's Church, Radnor on Friday, June 6.

Currently the Institution is attempting to develop a corps of volunteers, recruited mostly from families of residents, which will address needs our small band cannot fill. They will be called "Friends of Fair Acres". These individuals will be present at their convenience and will help feed helpless residents, will write letters, weed flower beds, move wheelchair residents and generally help where it is most needed. We, as League members, applaud this move knowing that this kind of volunteer service will be a boon for the residents and the Institution.

Barbara H. Winner, Chairperson

During this past year this committee has worked in an interim situation. Not only has the diocese been in the midst of transition, but this committee has been as well. Jane Cosby has admirably served in the capacity of Bishop's Staff Person for Renewal/ Evangelization/and Church Growth in an interim capacity. She has led vestry retreats, vestry planning sessions, training sessions for parish callers, and conducted numerous clergy consultations. In additon to that she has functioned in many staff capacities by fully participating in the Bishop's staff meetings, assisting vestries in their calling procedures, serving on the mission strategy committee, and carrying out many other services as called upon. The entire committee is proud of her and grateful for her work.

We have undertaken a search process to find the best possible person to permanently fill the Bishop's staff position. We have worked closely with Bishop Ogilby on this matter, and now we are working with Bishop Bartlett in the same way. It is our desire to have a fulltime person on the Bishop's staff who has had years of experience in training people to do various kinds and methods of evangelism, who can work closely and harmoniously with rectors, wardens, and vestries, and who has been an Episcopalian for a long time.

The Committee members themselves work directly with parishes in this area. Six members of the committee have been trained by Wayne Schwab to consult with parishes in doing evangelism. This is a long-term work and consultation in this area which is free of charge. Various other programs are also available such as seminars for rectors and wardens, the "Next Step" preaching mission for parishes already experiencing renewal, and individualized programs as requested.

It is our main purpose to encourage parishes to grow numerically and spiritually. Please call on this committee through Church House.

The Rev. John F. Maher, Jr., Chair

APPENDIX 18: RE-4 COMMISSION ON RACE RELATIONS/RACISM

In 1986, with the arrival of newly elected Bishop Allen Bartlett on the scene, the Commission on Race Relations/Racism was re-constituted and called into session. With this issue being an important one for Bishops Bartlett and Ogilby and others in the Diocese, we began to meet to work with each other in examining our personal history and attitudes concerning racism, to set that in a theological context and to set in motion a plan to address racism on the parish level and in Diocesan structures.

After many meetings with Bishop Bartlett as an active participant, the Commission is developing a strategy which is focusing on:

-being a support/advice group for our Bishop and being available on a short notice to assist him in the formation of public statements on racism.

-develop a process that clergy and parish groups can use for both resource and support in facing racism in the local church community.

-interacting with other Diocesan committees for discussion on addressing racism.

-assembling resources form other judicatory/ public sources; interacting with other judicatory boards or commissions on race relations.

This Commission stands ready to assist, in trust, love, and confidentiality, a clergyperson or parish group who is confronted with racism in whatever circumstances. We are ready to do this promptly and in the earnest desire that the Christian community must not be reactive but be pro-active in the naming of our human sinfulness with one another and in our healing and growth as sisters and brothers of our Lord Jesus.

APPENDIX 19: RE-5 SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE

Since its inception the Social Concerns Committee has responded in a variety of ways to some of the pressing social issues of our time, often as local as a neighborhood problem in Philadelphia and in the past year as global as concern for Africa. The divestment issue has claimed our attention for many hours, and a report with a recommendation was made to the ECS Board of Council in May and has been referred to its Investment Committee.

In response to the call of General Convention and local concern, the Committee prepared a resolution for Diocesan Council which has resulted in the appointment by Bishop Ogilby of a Diocesan Committee on the AIDS crisis. This group is to be a resource for prayers, training, communicating, and educating particularly in regard to anti-discrimination towards persons with AIDS. The Social Concerns Committee is represented on the AIDS crisis Committee.

Social Concerns has been supportive of the Farm Workers and rejoiced with them when in February of 1986, three-way collective bargaining took place with the workers, growers, and Campbell Soup Company being represented, resulting in a good contract being signed.

In other areas of concern we have continued to work closely with the Philadelphia Unemployment Project especially on health care of the uninsured, unemployed, and elderly. A resolution cosponsored by the Urban Caucus and the Committee on Peacemaking was sent to the Governor and legislators in Pennsylvania supporting an increase in human services dollars in 1986-87 in lieu of a personal income tax cut. We also opposed the Bell Telephone Company proposal to reduce the number of pay phones and conversion of others to one-way outgoing service and agreed to circulate petitions in opposition to PECO's 28 percent rate increase request.

We continue to have representation on the Delaware Valley Interfaith Coalition on Public Policy and to network whenever possible with other socially concerned Committees within the Diocese.

A sub-group of the Committee will prepare a response to General Convention's resolution regarding the Abortion Study and plan a Forum for Diocesan family members to attend sometime in early 1987. We have also been asked to look at the minimum wage question in the fall of 1986 with the possibility of supporting an increase since it has remained at the same level since 1981.

There is never a moment when there are no social concerns to come before us, and we will continue to be responsive to needs and to seek others to join us.

Marie J. Lennan, Bishop's Staff

APPENDIX 20: RE-6 COMMITTEE ON AGING

The Committee on Aging, a member of the National Episcopal Society for Ministry on Aging (ESMA), is part of the national network of province coordinators and diocesan designees who implement ESMA's goals and objectives—developing ministries with and on behalf of older persons.

The Committee has held nine monthly meetings with good attendance and an increase in membership. Committee members include: Nancy Ritter, Chairman; Richard F. Smith; Elizabeth Forrester; Alice Barron; Sally Pritchard; Marjorie Farmer; Karey B. Smith; Elouise Yarrington, the Rev. James Mole; and the Rev. Noble Smith.

Through the Committee, the Diocese maintains membership in the Episcopal Society for Ministry on Aging, and for the fourth year represented the Diocese at the Annual Province III ESMA meeting in May at the College of Preachers.

The Executive Director of ESMA, Mrs. Lorraine Chiaventone, met with the Committee in September to give direction in the Diocesan participation in a national ESMA survey, ESAM-TEL. The survey was sent out to every parish (with the job of folding, stuffing, and stamping done by a volunteer group at Cathedral Village). There was a 30 percent response from the parishes. The results showed high incidence of those over 50 years old in parishes and high attention to pastoral care, but lower response to support for independent living, intergenerational parish programs, and aids for the handicapped. Responses to the survey are still being assessed by the Committee and ESMA.

In February the Committee represented the Bishop at a meeting at Jefferson University Hospital, outlining the Health/PASS health care system replacing Medicare/Medicaid to those on public assistance in central and south Philadelphia. The Committee promptly sent out an explanatory letter to the clergy in these sections.

In April a program was given in the Valley Forge Deanery and in the Pennypack Deanery centered about the film, "My Mother, My Father," which showed four real-life situations in caring for a parent. The program was well received and showed the need for support groups for those in such situations.

An increasing number of calls are being received, requesting information and advice on area nursing homes and life-care communities. Several homes have been visited by the Committee, and a list is being compiled. The Committee welcomes information from those in the Diocese.

Nancy S. Ritter, Chairperson

APPENDIX 21: RE-9 SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF PHILADELPHIA

What is the Seamen's Church Institute?

The SCI is Pennsylvania's largest multi-faceted ecumenical international human services agency. Its constituency are the merchant seafarers who crew the ocean-going vessels which call at the Ports of Philadelphia. The Ports of Philadelphia include those piers and terminals on both sides of the 100 mile-long Delaware River in the states of Delaware, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey.

What does the Seamen's Church Institute do?

Each year there are approximately 80,000 international seafarers from 80 nations and every religioun known to humankind who come into our Ports. They are primarily men and women from emerging Third World nations and Asia - inexpensive and sometimes oppressed labor. They are young, married, and go Down to the Sea in Ships for economic reasons, not for adventure. They literally are "strangers in a strange land" about whom few are aware and fewer care.

In a recently completed Five Year Strategic Plan, the SCI reconfirmed its Mission to:

> "...pro-actively meet the present day human needs of all seafarers - irrespective of religion, race, or nationality - who man the vessels within the Ports of Philadelphia...acting as ambassadors of good will..., providing a religious/pastoral presence for the shore based maritime community, and... facilitating the growth and well being of the Ports..."

The SCI's primary modus operandi is to "take the services to the 'users' aboard their ships." In today's maritime trade, ships are in Port for hours or days, not weeks or months. There is little time to ascertain and meet human needs. The relationship needs to be timely, professional, and of a quality nature.

Each morning six days a week, every week of the year, a trained multilingual SCI Ship's Visitor begins his pastoral mission. Every docked vessel is boarded. Greetings are given and hospitality offered on behalf of the Risen Lord, our community and the nation. Work-related, racial, illness, pastoral and safety issues are ascertained - and then met with the assistance of government and other local agencies. Those free to leave their ship are provided free SCI transport to shopping area - ethnic neighborhoods, Center City, or any other place they desire. Arrangements are made to pick up the entire crew after the supper hour to transport them into town and the Seamen's Center at Third and Arch Streets.

There literally is no inquiry or need left unattended. If SCI cannot meet it in this Port, the international network of seafarer agencies is brought into action.

At the three-story Seamen's Center, hospitality and assistance continue with the help of many volunteers. The Seamen's Center is open 15 hours each weekday and 8 hours on Saturdays and Sundays.

International telecommunication, currency exchange, informal ecumenical worship, pastoral/vocational counseling all are available for the asking at the Center. There are lounge, library and letter-writing areas. There is ping-pong, billiards, darts, and pool. There are table/card games. There is T.V. with free coffee and tea. There is a small ships store, vending machinces and video games.

There are the twice-a-week full length feature films, the twice-a-month music nights with a professional pianist, and the once-a-month disco dances with dance hostesses and a get-down D.J.

Most importantly, there are caring staff and volunteers who have as their Christian precept a concept of hospitality which says: "We are blessed and privileged to be given the opportunity to have you as our guests and to serve you in any manner you desire".

Who Runs the Seamen's Church Institute?

An independent, interfaith voluntary Board of Managers of 30 young men and women set SCI policy and oversee fiscal matters. Many of the Board represent families who for generations have served the SCI and the Church.

The Bishop of Pennsylvania is SCI's Honorary President; there are three honorary clerical Vice Presidents, an Advisory Board, and a newly formed Business Advisory Committee. The Board is divided into working functional committees.

The Rev. Neale A. Secor has been the SCI's Director since June 1985. He most recently was with the Seamen's Church Institute of New York/New Jersey, has been a Rector and community organizer in the Harlem section of Manhattan, and a practicing trial attorney.

Fr. Secor is assisted by three full-time and two part-time Ships Visitors/Driver/Counsels, an administrative staff of three and a building staff of two. Scores of volunteers complement and make possible the mission.

What Is the Relationship Between the Diocese and SCI?

The mission to seafarers in our area began with the Seamen's Friends Society (Quaker) in 1843 and the Churchmen's Association for Seamen's Work (Episcopal) in 1847. The famous "Floating Chapel of the Redeemer" was christened and slid into the waters of the Delaware in 1849. By 1920 these founders and the many other seafarer agencies of the time were consolodated in the Episcopal related and supported Seamen's Church Institute of Philadelphia.

Today, with happy roots in the Anglican tradition, the Episcopal Church and our Diocese, SCI is an independent ecumenical agency with no direct support from the Church, the Government, or the United Way.

As have been each of its Directors, SCI's "heart", if not its pocketbook, is Anglican and clearly beats within the framework of the Diocese of Pennsylvania in which it is an affiliated mission.

Who Supports the Seamen's Church Institute?

To raise two-thirds of its annual operating budget of $375,000 the SCI relies on voluntary contributions. The other third is generated from endowment.

Contributions are requested of individual parishes and parish groups, individual donors, corporations, foundations and Board members.

The SCI's serious deficit situation has been addressed and is being met. The deficit has been decreased over 50 percent in the last twelve months. A balanced budget is projected by 1988-89.

What Has the Seamen's Church Institute Recently Accomplished?

In addition to revamping internal organization, completing a Five Year Plan, re-energizing its staff and Board, developing new programs and professionalizing its development efforts, during the past twelve months the small dedicated staff of the SCI has increased markedly its services to international seafarers.

For example:

	June, 1985	January, 1986	Year End Totals
Ships boarded/visited	116	476	3,575
Seafarers Transported	621	1,525	13,146
Seafarers taken shopping	12	143	1,916
Seafarers utilizing center	629	1,386	14,761
International Telephone	47	217	2,650
Worship Services			103
Nationalities Assisted			75

SCI: A Mission In Need of Partners

The Seamen's Church Institute neither desires nor is able to "go-it-alone". SCI is a small group of Christians attempting to perform a very large ecumenical mission. We need all the help we can get!

If each parish in our great Diocese would regularly pray for the seafarers in their dangerous, lonely and important work, I feel certain God will hear and continue to bless the mission of the SCI.

If each parish would contemplate in its missionary outreach and giving the volunteer and financial needs of the SCI, I feel certain God will hear and bless the stewardship.

If each parish would collect badly needed clothes and magazines ....would undertake to help knit and pack for the Seafarers' Christmas Program ....would share their hearts and counsel, I feel certain God will continue to bless each of our seafaring friends - and that is what it really is all about.

The Rev. Neale A. Secor, Director

APPENDIX 22: RE-10 EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

This 1986-87 year will be remembered by Episcopal Community Services for many years to come. And once it is over ECS will never be the same again. Among our many acitivites are:

° The merger of ECS's Springfield Retirement Residence/ All Saints' Rehabilitation Hospital with Chestnut Hill Hospital.

° The return of ECS staff from temporary quarters to its completely renovated headquaters, Old Saint Paul's on Third Street, on the 225th anniversary of the first service in this historic Church.

° A six-month celebration and rededication of Old Saint Paul's and ECS's mission and ministry.

We are looking forward to joining hands with many in the Diocese so that our joint concern and energies for this ministry to those whom Our Lord called "the least of these" will be expanded and strengthened. No one group or even an institution, such as ECS, can do everything, but together we do far more.

I now particularly want to recognize and thank the many parishioners who are now working closely to further our mission and ministry, as follows:

- volunteers who share their energies and care directly with ECS clients through such activities as visiting homebound elderly, transporting them to appointments and running errands, and parish painting/repair groups that have dedicated Saturdays to brighten a home.
- rectors/vicars and parishioners that have joined with ECS in addressing unmet needs in their communities. This has varied from Phoenixvelle's low-income housing project (St. Peter's), to the Montgomery County shelter for the homeless (St. Peter's, Glenside, St. Philip-in-the-Field, Oreland, and All Hallows, Wyncote), to West Oak Lane's after-school tutoring and recreation program (St. Matthias).
- the nearly 100 board and committee members who faithfully attend meetings and develop strategies for ECS's ministry.
- lay and associate chaplains who have undergone training and now dedicate themselves in pastoral care teams to hospitals, prisons and nursing homes.

This list is nearly endless and the potential for more people to be involved is also limited only by our will, our creativity, our energies, and our stewardship.

Thank you for the energy, vitality and faith you bring for ECS's ministry making it a true reflection of Christ's calling to us.

The Rev. Gilbert S. Avery, III
Executive Director

APPENDIX 23: RE-11 COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The Commission on Ministry works with the Bishop in considering the qualifications of individuals seeking ordination and in giving them guidance on their course of preparation. We also help in the oversight of the ordination process as a whole.

During the past year the COM has completed a comprehensive evaluation of the ordination process in order to report to Bishop Bartlett as he came on board. A subcommittee is working with the Bishops to implement changes in the process.

Key elements of the changes include:

1. Highlighting the role of the Rector and local parish in the process of discernment of vocation. Guidance will be given to facilitate a serious discernment process on the local level.

2. Resolution of communication problems throughout the process. One example is that key people involved in the process are meeting, striving to see the process as an unified one serving both the individual and the Church.

3. Elimination of duplication in the early phases of application.

4. Clear definitions of the role of groups and indivduals involved and a clear purpose for various stages of the process.

5. Review of our use of alternate education options and a policy on attendance at an Episcopal seminary.

6. The expectation that the norm is that an individual should NOT begin seminary before postulancy.

7. The raising up of the Vocational Diaconate in this diocese and clear guidelines relating to it.

The Rev. Carol M. Chamberlain,
Chairperson

APPENDIX 24: RE-12 ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH COMMISSION

The Purpose arrived at by the Ecumenical and Interfaith Commission is:

> "We recognize that all are one under God, and we struggle to realize this unity, appreciating the diversity of God's people through the actions of sharing, dialogue, and prayer.
> The purpose of this Commission in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is to serve as a bridge between the Diocese and other religious bodies; to communicate Ecumenism within our own Diocese; and to set up structures to carry out this communication".

The Ecumenical and Interfaith Commisssion has met monthly at Calvary Church in Conshohocken.

As your Ecumenical Officer, I attended the Interfaith meeting held in Elkins Park Episcopal Church, December 4th. Fr. John Hardwick gave the Christian view of atonement to a mixed gathering of Jews and Christians during the Episcopal/Jewish dialogue meeting.

I engaged in a panel discussion of the BEM document held in St. Louis R.C. Church, Yeadon, on February 25. The panel included Fr. Charles Diamond, Dr. John Reumann, a local Presbyterian pastor, and myself. Approximately 200 were in attendance. The ecumenical gathering was sponsored by the Lutherans, Presbyterians, Roman Catholics and Episcopalians. The Rev. John Margos of St. Michael's, Yeadon, was actively involved.

During Lent a special ecumenical effort was held in Pottstown focusing on Baptism in the BEM document. The program was inaugurated at an Agape Luncheon held during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity at which the key note speaker, a Roman Catholic priest, addressed the subject of "Baptism: The Door to Unity".

The subject was continued at the Community Lenten luncheons, at seminars held during the week, culminating in a concelebrated Baptism of two candidates within a Shared Eucharist on Ascension Night. Those participating included Lutherans, Presbyterians, Baptists, United Church of Christ, Methodist, Episcopalians, and the Orthodox.

I was a guest at a Byzantine Church for the Liturgy of Presanctified Gifts.

On April 6, I represented our Bishops at the Civic Center for the 25th anniversary of John Cardinal Krol as Archbishop of Philadelphia.

On April 8 the General Board of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches was held at Station Square, Pittsburgh. This was the first General Board Meeting in Pittsburgh within living memory. It commemorated the 75th anniversary of the first Council meeting held in Pittsburgh in 1911. An Orthodox judicatory joined the Pennsylvania Council of Churches bringing the total of participating judicatories to 39. I was able to present a resolution congratulating Cardinal Krol on his anniversary.

The LARCO (Lutheran, Anglican, Roman Catholic, Orthodox) monthly meetings are continuing in the Valley Forge Deanery. At its April meeting Dr. John Reumann of the Lutheran Theological Seminary spoke on the BEM document.

From May 13 to May 17, I attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity held in Hartford, Connecticut. The EDEO (Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers) annual meeting is held in conjunction with the Workshop.

At the EDEO meeting the National Ecumenical Officer, The Rev. William Norgren, stated that the Statue of Liberty is not the only thing celebrating 100 years of age. 1986 marks the 100th anniversary of the Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral.

Each Diocese is invited to plan a celebration of the Quadrilateral during the "National Ecumenical Emphasis" in 1986-1988.

An excellent article appeared in the June issue of The Episcopalian entitled "A Century of Search" by Bob Libby. His opening paragraph underscores the triennial emphasis with these words — "What well may be the most important single document ever produced by the Anglican Communion will celebrate its centennial this year".

Your Ecumenical Commission is engaged in making preparations for a fitting celebration of the Chicage-Lambeth Quadrilateral.

Fr. Norgren reminded us that the Presiding Bishop has made a decision to visit the major ecumenical centers: Jerusalem, Istanbul to meet the Ecumenical Patriarch and the Armenian Patriarch; Rome, where he will visit the Anglican Center, St. Paul's Within the Walls, the Secretariat of Christian Unity and maybe a visit with the Bishop of Rome; Geneva, at the WCC headquarters. The Presiding Bishop will use this as a teaching vehicle. It will be a major event in the life of the Church.

Bishop Parsons who serves on the COCU Commission gave a page by page analysis of the COCU "Consensus". He has made a thorough study of the document and has tried to find where Episcopalians might have qualms. General Convention in 1988 will be asked to respond to COCU "Consensus".

Bishop Michael Murphy, Roman Catholic Bishop of Erie, a member of the Commission for Doctrine, spoke before a joint gathering of NADEO (National Association of Diocesan Ecumenical Officers, Roman Catholic), EDEO, and LEO (Lutheran Ecumenical Officers) on the reception process in the Roman Catholic Church of The Final Report.

At the present time 18 national hierachives have responded to the invitation of Cardianal Willibrands to submit The Final Report to careful study to determine whether or not it represents substantial agreement in faith on the areas identified in the document. The replies differ in focus but they yield a considerable degree of consensus. In general all the reports thus far have been positive about the work of ARCIC (Anglican Roman Catholic International Commission). Some characterized the efforts of The Final Report as a remarkable effort at ecumenical dialogue not only an effort, but an effective effort at ecumenical dialogue. Many were surprised at the degree of agreement that was reached and many acknowledged in their reports the fact that we are indeed at a moment of significance. This is a distinctive moment of relationship between our Communions.

The Rev. Dr. John Deschner, Professor of Christian Doctrine at The Perkins' School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, gave the keynote address in which he said that just one week ago — "I spoke with Gunther Gassman, Director of the WCC Faith and Order Secretariat, who mentioned that there have been 120 offical responses to the BEM document. The Anglican response is a whole book. The first volume of the official responses to the 'Baptism, Eucharist, and Mimistry' text, edited by Max Thurian, is now available. There were 20 responses from non-member churches such as The Missouri Synod. There were 300 responses from unofficial groups such as seminaries". The Roman Catholic response is building up. The Methodist response will be late.

In brief, the responses my be characterized as . . . . .

1) none reject BEM
2) most approve
3) issues of Tradition and Scripture are being raised
4) within Reformed tradition responses are from critical to approval
5) the text is not to be perfected further
6) a response to the responses will be made at a WCC Congress in 1988 or 1989

On May 21, I attended the Committee on Ecumenical Relations of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches held in Harrisburg. We were asked to share ideas for new models of ecumenical education events that will awaken new vistas of ecumenicity. It was the consensus that a workshop for Chirstian Unity in Pennsylvania be held with a format similar to the Pennsylvania State Pastors Conference or in conjunction with the State Pastors Conference.

22 new Parish Ecumenical Representatives (PER's) have been added to our list of PER's from the following Deaneries: Pennypack, Montgomery, Fairmont, Southwark, Brandywine, Delaware, Merion, Wissahickon, Bucks, and Valley Forge.

40 responses were received form parishes sending the names of their PER's.

51 responses were received in answer to the question — "What are your parish's ecumenical activities?"

The Commission collated the responses and found that in addition to engagement in Ministerium, Thanksgiving and Good Friday Services, ecumenical dialogue is ongoing in all deaneries. One parish reported that an ecumenical dialogue meets every six weeks including Episcopal, Methodist, Lutheran, and Roman Catholic representatives using the BEM document as focus of discussion.

The Ecumenical Bulletin is being sent to all active rectors of parishes by the Ecumenical Commission to further communication on the ecumenical scene.

I end this report with a resolution:

Whereas the current 1986-1988 triennium has been designated by the 1985 General Convention for a "National Ecumenical Emphasis", and

Whereas 1986-1988 commemorates the hundred anniversary of the Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral, be it resolved that

The Diocese of Pennsylvania through its Ecumenical Commission and other agencies of the Diocese plan a worthy celebration of the centenary of the Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral.

Submitted by:

The Rev. Wilfred F. Penny
Ecumenical Officer

APPENDIX 25: RE-13 DIOCESAN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The first annual report based on the objectives given to the Christian Education Committee by the Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby for the Christian Education Resource Center being established at the Church of the Saviour.

Responding to these objectives the Christian Education Committee:

* collated the 1985 survey responses from 110 parishes to serve as a guide to planning.

* presented inaugural conference: "Teaching Teachers How To Teach"; the Rev. Dr. Locke E. Bowman, Professor Virginia Seminary; 191 parish Christian education leaders participating.

* furnished the center in the Church of the Saviour to create a space where people, experiences, materials and support can connect; recommended to the Bishop the appointment of the present director.

* arranged for Dedication of the Center and the Commissioning of the Committee by Bishop Ogilby and Bishop Bartlett; Holy Eucharist; Dedication; luncheon; open house; 121 Diocesan leaders attending.

* organized and coordinated a "Church School Curriculum Fair". 19 publisher displays; workshops by our committee members; 176 church school leaders attending.

* began process of stocking curricular support material and texts for children, youth and adults.

* created a summer schedule for committee members to connect with parish leaders in the center.

* supported continuing program of Education for Ministry, EFM.

* established a working relationship with other educational entities: AVRL; Stewardship; Spiritual Growth; Family Life Mimistry; Philadelphia Theological Institute; Episcopal Community Services.

* formulated new objectives and long range goals for the children, youth and adult teaching and learning cycles, including leadership, organization and administration; listed curriculum areas such as confirmation, adult stages of faith and development, Bible study and Biblical literacy, youth education, children's worship and teacher training.

* prayed that God's Word and Will be known, and served.

Robin Ingram, Chair,
Christian Education Committee

APPENDIX 26: RE-14 SPIRITUAL GROWTH COMMITTEE

The Prayer & Spiritual Growth Committee is appointed by the Bishop to serve as a resource for information and assistance to parishes and individuals in matters of prayer and spiritual growth in Christ. A brochure is now available describing these services.

The committee met eight times during the period between diocesan conventions. Its members have been: The Rev. James Allen; The Rev. Michael R. Becker (chair); The Rev. Phillip Bennett, The Rev. Peyton Craighill; The Rev. Vincent Liddle; Ms. Didi Rausch (secretary); The Rev. Barbara Rivers; The Rev. Edward Schultz; The Rev. Bryan Williams; Sr. Mary Michael, S.S.M.; Mr. Rick Dellit (treasurer); and Mr. George Soule (diocesan liason person).

Other than the cost of producing the Diocesan Prayer Calendar, which is done at the Bishop's direction, the committee received no monies from the diocesan budget. The cost of the calendar is paid directly by the diocesan treasurer.

During this period the chairman led a discussion group on the Spiritual Life for St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill; a morning for reflection at The Church of the Savior, Philadelphia; a portion of a "Vestry Day" at St. David's, Radnor. A quiet evening with the Bishop was sponsored by the committee, as well as a retreat held at Daylesford Abbey. Various individuals on the committee have been asked from time to time to give counsel and advice, particularly about possible vocations to the ordained ministry, not in the sense of an evaluation, but rather how to go about seeking God's will in prayer.

Monthly diocesan mailings to clergy have been made use of regularly as a means of passing on information about conferences, retreats, workshops, etc. to be held in other places, as well as recommending books. These mailings have also included articles by the chairman of committee.

As of June 1, 1986, Bishop Bartlett has been appointed converner or the committee.

Michael R. Becker, Chair

APPENDIX 27: RE-23 COMMITTEE ON ALCOHOL, ALCOHOL ABUSE AND ALCOHOLISM

The 4A Committee was formed by Bishop Ogilby in 1980 in response to the 1979 General Convention Resolution which recommended that every diocese in our country have such a committee. A first, and ongoing, goal is to provide a statement on the use of alcoholic beverages at church functions and/or on church property, with particular emphasis on the provision of non-alcoholic choices, to provide to all clergy and parishes of our diocese written procedures for treatment of clergy and diocesan employees and their family members who suffer from the illness of alcoholism, and to provide an employer's policy statement which includes assurances of job security and insurance coverage for those completing a prescribed course of treatment for the disease of alcoholism.

The Committee offers to the diocese knowledgable men and women who can provide any parish, clergy or individual assistance in developing educational programs, intervention training, and knowledge of treatment programs. We are clergy and lay, professional and non-professional, recovered alcoholics and those who have strong personal interest in the area of addiction and other chemical abuse. We look forward once again this year to supporting National Alcohol Awareness Sunday, as developed by the National Episcopal Coalition on Alcohol, and scheduled for Sunday, November 23. We hope that any parish will feel free to be in touch with our Committee for assistance in addressing this year's theme on alcoholism and the family.

The 4A Committee is strongly committed to the fact that alcoholism (and other chemical dependencies) is an illness which affects the individual, and the family, mentally, physically and certainly spiritually. Our annual Conference in January, 1986 addressed the issue of how the entire family is affected by this disease and featured Ann Smith, Director of Family Services at the Caron Foundation in Reading, Pennsylvania. Our 3rd Annual Conference is scheduled to be held on January 13, 1987. The program will be devoted entirely to the theme of Addiction and Spirituality, and will feature Dr. Earnie Larsen, from Minneapolis, noted author, lecturer and therapist, who will be our guest presenter.

Addiction is an enormous problem - both in our nation and in our church - today. We urge anyone who has a concern about someone they care about to be in touch with any member of our Committee for confidential counsel on how they might be of help. You just might save someone's life.

Karen Schulz, Chair
4A Committee

APPENDIX 28: RE-24 FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY COMMITTEE

The Family Life Ministry Committee has been the Diocese of Pennsylvania's extension of the National Church's concern for the quality of Family Life. Though Diocesan in scope, its ministry has taken place often within parishes and always for the families comprising our parishes.

The Diocesan Family Life Ministry Committee has functioned as one of the Bishop's Special Committees. Its mission has been to develop and reinforce ways the church can minister to families in our changing society.

This concern was initiated through the National Commission on Social and Specialized ministries which identified "The Family" as the focus for a major ministry throughout the church.

The Diocesan Committee agreed to use the definition which was adopted by the National Church at the Episcopal Conference on Families, in Denver in 1978 - - - - - "The Family," in its many forms, is vital and flourshing. We need to re-examine our basic assumptions about families - continue to minister to them where they are and where they hurt."

In response to concerns which came in from a questionnaire which was sent to parishes for input, a series of workshops were designed under the title "Have Workshops - Will Travel." These workshops, jointly or separately, have been conducted in a number of parishes and deaneries along with other presentations on various aspects of Christian Family Life.

Since 1978 Family Life Ministry has designed and held the following conferences:

1. "Exploration Into Family Prayer" with workshops on:

   a. Problem Solving and Healing through Prayer for Christian Families.
   b. Ways of Praying with Children.
   c. Christian Family Prayer based on good communication
   d. Paths to Family Bible Study
   e. Creative ways to Family Prayer

2. "A New Life Style For A New Age - Living With Less" with workshops on:

   a. God, the Bible and the Simple Life Style
   b. "Playing Together" - Family Recreation
   c. "Cooking with Conscience" - Meal Planning
   d. Celebrating Major Holidays
   e. How Economic Trends Affect Family Life
   f. Developing Mutual Support In Christian Communities through Extended Families

3. An Umbrella Conference - "All About Families" featuring workshops on:

   a. Alcoholism and Drugs
   b. Spiritual Growth
   c. Death and Dying
   d. Cults and Youth
   e. Responsible Parenthood/Teen Age Pregnancy
   f. Marriage vs "Live-ins"
   g. Aging

4. "Christian Parenting" - Its Challenge - Its Mission with workshops on:

   a. Time Management in the Christian Family
   b. Communicating with Children
   c. Dealing with Crises
   d. Building Towards Faith in the Adolescent
   e. Children with Special Needs

The needs of "Aging Parents" became the focus of a Sunday afternoon Workshop with a panel of professional consultants The Committee has, also, been concerned about the Special Needs of Clergy Families.

The Ministry of "Family Life Enrichment" has been emphasized with three Diocesan wide celebrations.

1. The Bicentennial "Episc-zoo-palian Day" in 1984

2. "Family Day on the River" in 1985

3. "A Ride To Paradise" in 1986

The "Good News" Within Families will be the emphasis of the next Conference which is scheduled for the first Saturday in Advent, December 6, 1986 at the Church of the Saviour.

The Family Life Ministry Committee has worked in collaboration with the Episcopal Church Women; the Alcohol, Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism Committee; Aging (ESMA) Committee; Youth Ministry; Delaware Valley Regional Conference on Families Forum; Energy of Employemnt Project for the Unemployed; the National Church's Network on Families; other Dioceses; Diocesan Deaneries, Parishes, and the Christian Education Center of the Diocese.

The Rev. Hugh Dickinson, Chair

Mrs. John W. Forrester, Bishop's Staff

CONCERNING EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Accepted the slate for election in November: Emory Thomas, Vice Chairman; Gail Brunner; Arlene McGurk, and Philip McMaster.

CONCERNING PARTNERS IN MISSION: Received the report of recommendation from Partners in Mission for restructuring.

APPENDIX 31: RE-6 CLERGY DEPLOYMENT

The unusually large number of openings reported last year, has been followed by the smallest number of new parish openings for any 12-month period since 1975. The tilt toward increasing numbers of placements from outside the diocese has continued, with two-thirds of this year's senior parish placements and nearly half of staff clergy placements coming from outside the diocese. From a purely numerical standpoint, this diocese has not been producing enough new ordinands to keep up with the openings.

Two women were elected to full-time rectorships this year, but we continue to have difficulty finding qualified clergy from ethnic minorities. No relief is foreseen for the financial constraints which have limited intern placement for new ordinands.

A second priest, the Rev. V. Richard Hawkins, has completed training as an interim consultant with The Alban Institute and the Mid-Atlantic Association for Training and Consulting; and a fifth priest has taken the CDO training to coach clergy in preparing and updating CDO profiles and in utlizing the CDO system.

The national CDO has published a booklet, "The Clergy Side of Interviewing..." written by Mr. George Soule.

The Archives of the Diocese probably come seldom to the minds or attention of most people of the Diocese until there arises some administrative, historical or genealogical question: celebration of a parish anniversary, research into family history, or the need for historical background regarding legal or administrative matters. During the past Convention year, I provided the bishops, the staff, the chancellor, and other officials of Diocese with assistance and information from the Archives. I met with parish history committees, and/or rectors of St. James' of Kingsessing; Grace Church, Mt. Airy; St. Matthias' Church; St. Martin-in-the-Fields; St. Mary's, Hamilton Village; and Grace Church, Hulmeville to discuss the preservation of parish records, the writing of parish history, and th celebration of parish anniversaries. I also visited Episcopal Hospital. Jennifer Lurie did considerable research in the Archives on the history of St. Mary's, Wayne.

When St. Martin's Church, Oak Lane, was closed, I removed the surviving records, including a few from the Church of the Holy Nativity, Germantown, which merged with St. Martin's in 1967. Volume I of St. Martin's Parish Registers is missing. This highlights the need for better care in preserving the records of our parishes.

I continued the appraisal, arrangement, description and housing of records and removed inactive records for the office files during the office renovation at Church House. Much processing work remains to be done.

Two works, valuable for research in the history of the Diocese, biographies of Bishop Potter of Pennsylvania and Bishop Hopkins of Vermont, were donated to the book collection of the Archives, as were other books, photographs, artifacts, and papers.

In addition to service to the Diocese, for which, of course, the Archives primarily exists, I responded to requests for assistance from other dioceses, the academic community and the general public. I supplied architects, preservation consulting firms, university administrators and a reporter with information, photographs, and sketches of the former Church House at 12th and Walnut (1895 - 1921), which is being renovated, and the former St. Andrew's Chapel of the Philadelphia Divinity School, now owned by the University of Pennsylvania, and now being made into a High School for the Dramatic Arts. From the latter site I coordinated the removal of gravestones of old St. Andrew's Church, Philadelphia, to St. Paul's Church, West Whiteland, to which the remains were removed in 1974.

The Rev. James Friedrich, who is making a slide show on the history of the Episcopal Church for the Diocese of Los Angeles, found the woodcuts from our collection of tracts published by the Female Episcopal Tract Society of Philadelphia in the nineteenth century, especially valuable for his work.

Request for genealogical information, which often requires considerable research time, continued unabated.

The decision not to fund the Archives Program in 1987 (except for storage rental) will mean a drastic curtailment of services and access to the Archives. Hopefully, a way will eventually be found to fund the completion of the processing of records, reference and research services, outreach to the parishes, and permanent staff and facility for the Archives.

Glenn Colliver
Archivist of the Diocese

A CHALLENGE FOR EVANGELISM
IN THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

The Diocesan Hispanic Committee is appointed by the Bishop; it exists to advise him and the Council about strategies to develop and enable ministry with the Hispanic people.

The Hispanic Ministry Committee believes that it is time to accelerate our efforts in spreading the Gospel to Spanish-speaking people in the Diocese.

In recent years, we have seen a dramatic increase in the population of Hispanic people in our region. At the same time, a significant number of congregations, particularly in the city, have experienced an erosion in membership due to population changes. There is also a growing number of Hispanic people in the agricultural areas of the Diocese.

We are therefore convinced that our mission with Hispanic people is a part of God's call to our Diocese at this time.

This is a call for: AFFIRMATION, ADVOCACY, AND LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT.

We affirm that people of Hispanic ancestry have much to contribute to the enrichment and wholeness of the Church through their culture, language, music, gifts, and skills that are uniquely Hispanic.

We believe that it is the Church's mission to stand with the poor and the powerless where they have no voice and to participate in the issues that affect their lives and well-being.

We firmly believe that leadership is key to the health and growth of a people.

Hence, we see a major role for the Diocese to help identify, encourage, nurture, and appropriate the leadership of Hispanic people, so that they may grow into the fulness of God and full participation in the life of the Body of Christ.

We also recommend that Hispanic Ministry be incorporated into the future mission strategy of the Diocese.
